Prentice Leads Improving Aggies In Opener

A&M swimmers turned in several personal record times and pleased coach Dennis Fosdick despite running up a 1-2 record on the opening weekend.

The Aggies lost to a powerful University of Texas team on Friday 71-42. Saturday's action saw A&M fall to Air Force, but rebound against Southwest Conference foe Texas Tech with a 71-41 victory.

The win against Tech was the first of the young season for the Aggies who are priming for the conference meet on March 1, 2 and 3.

Fosdick was generally well pleased with the performance which he described as "tired, but good swimming.

"We haven't tapered off yet but many of our times were comparable to what we did in conference last year when we were at our peak. We've really improved since last year."

Last season the Aggies finished third in the conference meet with Fosdick being named coach of the year. The chances of A&M improving on that performance are slight with perennial champion and national power SMU again picked for the title. Texas is slated for second with A&M a solid pick for third.

Friday's action saw A&M swimmers win three of the 13 events. Steve Prentice captured the 200 yard individual medley relay with a time of 2:04.0.

Prentice also grabbed the 200 yard backstroke against Texas.

The Aggies could manage only three wins against Air Force with Prentice again capturing the 200 yard backstroke. Steve Moore won the 200 yard breaststroke and Doug Meaden grabbed the 500 yard freestyle.

Prentice again was the dominate force in the Tech meet winning the 200 individual relay and the 200 yard breaststroke. A&M relay teams won the 400 yard medley and the 400 yard freestyle against the Red Raiders.

Meaden won the 500 freestyle and Moore captured the 500 free
