Senate Defies Republicans On Watergate Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Wednesday rejected Republican attempts to broaden the scope and revise the membership of a proposed special committee to investigate the Watergate bugging incident.

The proposal stems from the bugging and break-in at the Democratic party's Watergate building offices last June.

GOP senators said the Democrats were seeking to cover up their own misdeeds by confining the probe to the 1972 election, saying, without citing specifics, that the Democrats had bugged them in the 1964 and 1968 campaigns.

But the Senate rejected, 44 to 32, a proposal to broaden the problem to cover the last three presidential elections.

On two separate tries, the Senate rejected amendments to add a third Republican to the proposed panel scheduled to have three Democrats and two Republicans. Then, the Senate agreed to a proposal to increase the size of the panel to seven members, with four Democrats and three Republicans.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr., D-N.C., is scheduled to head it.

GOP Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania told reporters shortly before the Senate met that he has "wholesale evidence of wiretapping of the Republican party" in the 1968 campaign.

And Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-

Ariz., said in a statement that he wanted the probe broadened to include Democratic alleged spying on his own 1964 presidential campaign.

Republicans argued on the floor that a bipartisan approach was necessary to assure the American people that the probe would be fair.

At the White House meanwhile, press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the White House would cooperate with the Senate investigation as long as the probe is "not partisan in nature."

Elsewhere, in a deposition taken last year, former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said he learned of the burglary of Democratic party headquarters at the Watergate building from radio news accounts.

The deposition was among a dozen taken last September in connection with civil suits filed as an outgrowth of the burglary and wiretapping at the Democratic party offices. They were released for inspection Wednesday.

In another deposition, former Commerce Secretary Maurice Stans said that money traced to the Watergate burglary was kept in the safe of Nixon campaign treasurer Hugh W. Sloan Jr., contradicting Sloan's testimony in the recent Watergate political espionage trial.

Both Mitchell and Stans worked in the Nixon re-election campaign.

Mitchell said he knew of no one in the Nixon campaign organization higher than those charged in the Watergate case who had any involvement in the case.

English Professor Authors Book On Malcolm Lowry

Dr. Richard H. Costa, associate professor of English at A&M, is the author of a new book which delves into the life and works of the late British-Canadian novelist Malcolm Lowry.

The volume is part of the World Authors Series of Twayne Publishers, Inc., of New York, the same firm which published Costa's study of H. G. Wells in 1967. Dr. Costa, a member of the TAMU faculty since 1970, specializes in modern fiction.

His new book includes a full reassessment of Lowry's best known novel, "Under the Volcano," as well as a balanced critique of his apprentice novel, "Ultramarine." The publication also covers two novels published since Lowry's death, along with his novellas, short stories, poems and correspondence.

Lowry, who died in 1957, was born in Liverpool and was graduated from Cambridge University. He spent most of his writing life, however, as an expatriate living in Mexico from 1936 until 1938 and British Columbia from 1939 to 1954.

The new book contains a large but selected bibliography of the burgeoning secondary source material on Lowry, much of it by such writers as Anthony Burgess, Stephen Spender, William G. Gass, Philip Toynbee, Walter Allen and Elizabeth Janeway, who are leading a rebirth of critical interest in the deceased novelist.

Dr. Costa devotes chapters to the literary influence of James Joyce and Conrad Aiken and the Jungian-archetypal aspects of Lowry.
