

Saturday's Contest On Regional TV Terry-Led Razorbacks To Battle Aggs

By KEVIN COFFEY
Assistant Sports Editor

A&M must remove all thoughts of Tuesday's SMU brawl and turn their minds to the Arkansas Razorbacks.

The Martin Terry led Razorbacks invade G. Rollie White Coliseum Saturday at 2:30 p.m. to do battle with the Aggies on regional television.

The game could be labeled a contest of also rans with both teams falling short of preseason predictions.

Arkansas is 11-8, standing 4-3 in SWC play. A&M is also 11-8 on the season and stands 3-4 in loop play.

Coach Shelby Metcalf thinks his Aggies can erase Tuesday night's action from their minds and prepare for the Hogs. "Forget about the fight," the A&M mentor said, "it's all history now and we lost the game besides. We can't look back now."

Looking ahead for Metcalf can only bring nightmares when he thinks of Arkansas' all SWC guard Martin Terry. Terry scored 46 points against the Aggs last year in Fayetteville and countered with 32 when the clubs met in College Station. In this years 84-73 Arkansas victory in the Ozarks, Terry again showed scoring proficiency ripping the net for 35 tallies. That's 37.7 points a game. "The big thing about Terry is his foul shooting," Metcalf said. "He gets a lot of people thinking about his outside shooting and they jump into him on his first fake."

Terry is joined in his efforts by junior Dean Tolson. The 6-8 Tolson scored 22 points and grabbed 16 rebounds against the Aggies in Fayetteville and according to Metcalf, "Intimidated our big people." Metcalf said that Jerry Mercer, A&M's best defensive postman, may draw the assignment of guarding Tolson. A pair of 6-7 forwards in Doug Campbell and Dennis White complete the Arkansas front line with Jody Bass assisting Terry in the ballhandling duties. Last year A&M nipped the Razorbacks 72-71 in College Station. G. Rollie White seems to hold some type of jinx over the Hogs as they have not won here since 1959, a string of 13 games. The Hogs are a high scoring outfit and led the conference in scoring last year with a 88.5 average. That was good enough for 17th in the nation. There are eight lettermen returning from that squad, led by the leading scorer, Terry, and the leading rebounder, in Tolson. Coach Lanny Van Eman has a record of 24-47 and is in his third year at Arkansas. Metcalf is 135-108 at A&M and is in his tenth season at the helm of the Aggies. The 1973 SWC has been a disappointment to the Aggies but Metcalf doesn't feel his team will be down for the battle with the Razorbacks. "I think our older kids will keep on competing even though we're out of the race. I think we have all learned a lesson this year," the A&M coach said.

The Aggies plan to counter the Arkansas five with Mario Brown and Mike Floyd at the guard spots with Cedric Joseph, Randy Knowles and Jeff Overhouse across the back line.

Overhouse will have plenty of personal incentive going for him in tomorrow's game. He has 1,064 career points at A&M and will pass Billy Bob Barnett on his sixth position among A&M scoring leaders. Overhouse is currently fourth among Aggie cagers in career rebounds with 652, seventh in SWC career points with 564 and fourth in SWC career rebounds with 355.

Knowles is currently the leading scorer for the Aggies with a 16.4 norm in conference play.

Overhouse is second at 15.4 and Brown third at 12.7.

Overhouse is the team's leading rebounder with 11.4 caroms a contest, Joseph second at 9.9 and Knowles third at 7.7.

Mario Brown leads the team in assists with 70 for the season. Tomorrow's contest is the 104th time the two schools have met with Arkansas holding a 64-39 edge.

The game will be telecast throughout Texas over TVS network with Frank Fallon doing the play by play.

KORA will broadcast the game over the Texas Aggie Basketball network beginning at 2:25 p.m.

A&M Track Season Begins With Astro Federation Meet

Texas A&M track coaches Charlie Thomas and Ted Nelson will take 17 thinclads to Houston Saturday to compete in the National Indoor Federation Meet in the Astrodome.

The Aggies will have entries in the mile relay, two-mile relay, distance medley relay and pole vault, and possibly in the high jump and 120-yard high hurdles. Ben Greathouse is the first alternate in the high jump while Scottie Jones is the second alternate in the hurdles.

"I think our best chances are in the one and two-mile relays," coach Charlie Thomas said. "Ben Greathouse might have a chance to place in the high jump. If he gets up to 7 feet, he'll place about fourth, that's how rough the competition is down there."

"Scotty Jones has a slim chance to place in the 120-yard high hurdles and Harold McMahon could do well in the pole vault."

All relay events will be between Southwest Conference members only while individual events will enter only the nation's best which include almost all the United States Olympians.

The distance medley relay team will consist of Pat Bradley running the 880 leg, Wayne Mills the 440, Jacob Yemme the 1320 and Charles Cottle the mile. The two-mile relay team will have Dennis O'Brien, Harold Davis, Willie Blackmon and Horace Grant, all Houstonians.

The mile relay foursome hasn't been finalized but will come from a group of Sammy Dierschke, Marvin Mills, Wayne Mills, Robert Brew, Doug Brodhead, Blackmon and Grant.

Harold McMahon will compete in the pole vault.

The meet starts at 7 p.m. Saturday.

A replay of the United States Olympic Trials high jump will feature the Houston Post-sponsored Astrodome Federation National Indoor Championships.

All three American Olympic high jumpers are entered in the Astrodome meet with Trials champion Dwight Stones, the "baby" of the team, Chris Dunn and Ron Jourdan.

Stones took the U. S. Trials with a personal record of 7-3, upsetting seasoned international class jumpers Jourdan and Dunn. In Munich, the 18-year-old UCLA freshman was the only American to clear the 7-0 5/8 qualifying height. He returned the next day to clear 7-3 for the Olympic bronze.

Jourdan and Dunn took second and third at the U. S. Olympic trials, both clearing 7-3. Jourdan was the tenth ranked high jumper in the world in '72, and placed second on the United States' list behind Stones.

Third in the U. S., Dunn was given an honorable mention in the world's rankings for 1972.

In the 1972 Astrodome meet, Dunn won the high jump with a leap of 7-1 with Jourdan second with 6-11.

Tickets are $2.50 each in reserved sections, and $1 in the unreserved pavilion section. Tickets can be purchased at the Astrodome and all five Foley's stores.

Reserves Swim Against Owls

Texas A&M's swim team will bypass the Southwest AAU meet in Dallas this week and Aggie reserves will go against Rice and John Brown U. in a double dual in Houston Saturday.

Coach Dennis Fosdick said he would keep the top three men in each event at home for the final hard workouts of the year this weekend. "After that we'll start our quality work so we can peak for the SWC meet."

Against Rice and John Brown U., of Siloam Springs, Ark., the Aggies will compete with swimmers ranked fourth or lower in each event.

The Aggies are 3-2 in dual meets this year. They've beaten Texas Tech, Houston and Arkansas and they've lost to Texas and Air Force Academy.

Next week the Aggies go against TCU and UT-Arlington on Thursday and then face powerful SMU on Saturday, all on the road.

Tennis Team Heads South

Texas A&M's tennis squad heads south this week for court action in Kingsville and Edinburg.

The Aggies face Texas A&I Thursday in Kingsville. They move over to Edinburg to play in the Pan-American Tournament Friday, Saturday & Sunday.

The Aggie players are Dan Coursen, junior from El Paso Irving; Billy Hoover, sophomore from College Station (A&M Consolidated); Bill Wright, sophomore from Quite, Ecuador; Lawton Park, senior from Houston Memorial; Kermit Smith, junior from Houston Westchester and Carter Lomax, freshman from Pasadena Rayburn.

A&M opened tennis action last Saturday with an 8-1 victory over Lamar Univ.

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You.

Which Way Does The ...

The weathervane on the barn gleams in the sun this morning and points due south.

Earlier, before the wind steadied it in its southerly direction, the eagle twirled, turning first one way, then the other.

It reminded me of the way I sometimes feel. Caught in the persistent cry of changing values, confused by the onrush of progressive ideas, I twist and turn, trying to select the good and reject the bad.

I'm glad for the steady influence of my church. The principles it teaches never change. Honesty, integrity and a love of God are important whatever the mores of society. Knowing this keeps me happy in a world of change and upheaval.

Your church can do the same for you.
