Mr. Rudder Awards Pins

Mrs. Rudder, widow of the late President of A&M, Gen. Earl Rudder, took part in a Ranger Company Awards ceremony Wednesday night.

Linda Kay Goss was selected as the first class President of the Ranger Co. Goss is a native of College Station and a graduate of College Station High School. She is currently a student at Texas A&M University.

Mrs. Rudder presented the pins to the Rangers who have served in the Corps since the inception of the program. The pins are awarded to those who have served at least one year in the Corps.

Mrs. Rudder congratulated the Rangers on their service and thanked them for their dedication to the Corps.

MSC Council Fills Positions

The MSC Council has filled several positions for the upcoming academic year. These positions include positions for the President, Vice President, and Secretary.

The President of the Council is responsible for leading the council meetings and overseeing the council's activities. The Vice President assists the President in these responsibilities and also takes on additional leadership roles as needed. The Secretary is responsible for recording the minutes of council meetings and keeping records of council activities.

Other positions that have been filled include those for the Treasurer, Solicitor, and Public Relations Officer. These positions are responsible for managing the council's finances, representing the council to the public, and overseeing the council's external communications, respectively.

The council's new leaders are expected to bring new energy and ideas to the council as they work to represent the interests of the student body and advocate for the needs and concerns of A&M's students.
