

Arciniega Thrills Fans To Highlight Circus

'Good Time Had By All' As Aggies Whip Rice, 90-80

By BILL HENRY Coach Shelby Metcalf said after Tuesday night's 90-80 whipping of Rice that "a good time was had by all." Even losing coach Tom Knodel had a good chuckle while visiting his friend Metcalf at the Aggie bench during the game and giving the "Gig Em" sign when it was out of reach for his team.

It was more like a three-ring circus than a basketball game as 41 turnovers were committed, 39 personal fouls and two technicals. The most entertaining portion for the fans was the arrival of Aggie folk hero Joe Arciniega on the floor of G. Rollie White. A standing ovation was given as he entered the game with 50 seconds remaining. He satisfied his well-wishers with a career high four points and committed his second foul of the year. Both teams were loose as neither have any title hopes and all that was gained was experience as numerous substitutions were made. Rice played 11 players and the Aggies played 10. The win moves A&M to 6-5 in the SWC, 14-9 overall, while the Owls slumped to 2-9 in conference and 7-15 for the year. Randy Knowles was again the leading scorer with 22 points but 5-10 sophomore guard Mike Floyd stole the show. He hit 16 points, most coming from shots the Harlem Globetrotters couldn't make. His floor leadership and ball control were amazing as was his hustle. Mario Brown also played well scoring 18 points with 11 assists to fellow teammates for the score. His performance proved to the 3,553 fans that he is deserving of gaining votes on the Pizza Hut All-America team ballot that was being distributed during the game. "Our guard play was potent," Metcalf said. "They took the ball inside and looked for the open man. I thought we did a lot of things right tonight. "Mike Floyd is the best sophomore guard we've ever had at Texas A&M. He helps us a bunch ahead the rest of the way and it ended that way, 90-80. A&M hit almost 50 per cent of its shots from the field, 38 of 78, while the Owls hit on only 30 of 72 for 40 per cent. On the free throw line it was much different as the Owls waited until only 2:18 left before they missed their first one and finished

The Aggies were never in any trouble keeping at least ten points ahead the rest of the way and it ended that way, 90-80. A&M hit almost 50 per cent of its shots from the field, 38 of 78, while the Owls hit on only 30 of 72 for 40 per cent. On the free throw line it was much different as the Owls waited until only 2:18 left before they missed their first one and finished the game hitting 20 of 23 for nearly 90 per cent. The Aggies hit on 14 of 17 for 83 per cent. A&M will hit the road Saturday to take on league-leading Texas Tech in Lubbock at 8 p.m.

Seagren Collects $39,700

By HUBERT MIZELL Associated Press Sports Writer ROTONDA WEST, Fla. (AP)— Pole vaulter Bob Seagren, who had never "earned a legal dime in athletics," turned the Superstars sports carnival into a one-man show Tuesday and collected a whopping $39,700. "We've been eyeing a nice home in Los Angeles," said Seagren's wife Kam, "but our bank account hasn't matched our taste in houses. Today, we bought the house." The handsome part-time actor, a gold medalist in the 1968 Olympics but a disappointment at Munich when his vaulting pole was outlawed, swept four of the last six events on a 10-sport program. Ten of the world's best-known athletes strained through two days of action in events other than those for which they are famous, competing for a $122,000 purse. Seagren, 26, began his march by upsetting former heavyweight boxing champ Joe Frazier in weightlifting Monday night and then won the baseball hitting, half-mile run and one-mile bicycle race Tuesday. Jean-Claude Killy, the French idol of the ski slopes, was No. 2 overall — despite not winning an event — and took home $23,400. Table tennis was dominated by Rod Laver, and the tennis great from Australia rallied to tie for third in all events with race driver Peter Revson. Each man earned $13,100. The top five finishers in each sport were awarded points on a 10-7-4-2-1 basis, with each point worth $300. Then, the No. 1 overall man received an extra $25,000, with $15,000 for second and $10,000 for third. Seagren was a late entry, being selected when golfer Gary Player of South Africa was forced to withdraw due to illness. "Only a strange turn of events allowed me to win all this money," said the 175-pound vaulter. "If the International Track Association hadn't started business, I would have retired after the '72 Olympics." Seagren, Jim Ryun, Kip Keino and other trackmen of note begin the first pro circuit in the sport with a March 24 meet in Los Angeles. The Superstars is scheduled to be an annual event and the top four men are supposed to be invited to return in 1974.

Prentice Qualifies For Nationals As Swim Team Splits Four Meets

A&M's swimming squad split in four matches Friday and Saturday, beating Midwestern University and TCU while losing to UT-Arlington and SMU. The Aggies beat Midwestern, 200-8 and TCU, 63-48, in a double-individual in the TCU pool Friday afternoon. The Aggies lost to UT-Arlington at Arlington, Friday night, 80-33, and they lost to SMU in the SMU pool Saturday afternoon, 71-42. Steve Prentice kept alive his victory string in the 200-yard backstroke and he qualified for the Nationals in that event with a time of 2:01.3 against UT-Arlington. Aggies Steve Moore, Larry Schueckler and Nash Dowdle all swam their personal bests. During the four meets the Aggies had their best times of the year in the 400-yard freestyle relay, 400-yard medley relay, 200-yard individual medley, 200-yard backstroke, 100-yard freestyle, 200-yard butterfly and 200-yard breaststroke. The Aggies are idle this week but will be in the SWC championships at TCU the following week.
