

Arm-Waving, Dramatic Oratory Mark Debates

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Spectators got their money's worth at the state Capitol Thursday.

There was shouting, arm-waving and dramatic oratory at both ends of the old pink granite edifice.

When it was over: —The Senate shouted down two measures, including the first of the House-approved reform bills pushed by Speaker Price

Daniel Jr. Then for good measure, the Senate delayed consideration of a measure to give 18-year-olds full legal rights until next week.

—The House, after long and loud debate, approved a full blown investigation of alleged irregularities at Prairie View A&M College, but voted down an effort to abandon the state's appeal of a federal court ruling that set up single-member House districts in Dallas and San Antonio.

Finally both houses agreed to quit until 11 a.m. Monday.

Daniel said he was "disappointed" by the Senate's refusal to take up the House-approved bill to restrict the power of legislative conference committees.

"I am not going to criticize the lieutenant governor or the members of the Senate at this point. I just hope they will act as soon as possible after due deliberation."

When the conference committee limitation bill was offered in the Senate, a dozen or more senators jumped to their feet shouting objection to immediate debate.

"I've got a motion," said Sen. Bill Moore, D-Bryan. "Let's move it to the bottom of the debate calendar."

A Senate minority blocked an attempt to debate the Senate proposal that would set up annual legislative sessions and raise legislators' pay from $4,800 to $15,000 a year. The vote was 23-8, two votes short of the four-fifths needed to suspend rules and clear the way for debate.

There was considerable confusion in the Senate when another Senate bill, giving 18-year-olds the same legal rights as 21-year-olds, was offered for debate. Only four objections were recorded, and debate began, but several members soon began asking why the bill had been laid out.

"This is the bill that lets 18-year-olds buy beer and whisky legally," said Sen. Tom Creighton, D-Mineral Wells.

Sen. Don Adams, D-Jasper, protested that he would have voted against consideration of the bill but he was outside the chamber "getting my picture made with a peanut farmer."

Moore said he was outside getting his picture made with an Indian chief.

Sen. A. M. Aikin, D-Paris, said "This is just another reason why we need to keep order in the Senate and pay attention to what is going on."

An effort to postpone debate to May 15 failed but a motion to delay until March 5 passed easily.

House members approved the resolution directing the speaker to appoint a 12-member committee to investigate "all aspects of the problems of Prairie View A&M College" by a 105-10 vote, with 10 not voting.

"This was never intended to be a witch hunt," said Rep. Craig

Washington, D-Houston, one of several black House members co-sponsoring the resolution. "Students are afraid at Prairie View."

Reps. Bill Presnal, D-Bryan, and Latham Boone, D-Navasota, opposed the resolution, saying that a grand jury should take care of any wrongdoing, not the House.

COMMANDER AND DEPUTY COMMANDER of A&M's 1973-74 Corps of Cadets will be Scott Eberhardt of Dallas and Melvin P. "Slim" Noack of Walburg, near Georgetown. Noack is the first Marine Corps officer candidate selected for the corps' two top leadership positions.

Two School Records Set At Conference Swim Meet

Fort Worth—Two school records and several personal best times highlighted first day action for the Texas Aggie swim team at the Southwest Conference swim meet Thursday.

On the plus side, A&M records fell in the 500-yard freestyle and 200-yard individual medley.

Doug Meaden posted a 4:44.03 smashing the existing record in the 500 by six seconds. He nosed John Thorburn of SMU by .07 of a second for fourth place.

Steve Prentice captured the 200-yard individual medley with a 2:01.20, breaking his old mark by a tenth of a second. Prentice's performance was good for fourth place.

Carl Yates posted a personal best while taking ninth in the 500-yard freestyle in 4:56.2.

Steve Moore also swam his personal best with a 2:02.67 for eighth in the 200-yard individual medley. Moore qualified in 12th position but rallied up four places in the consolation finals.

The heartbreaker for the Aggies came when Dan Sonnenberg hit his hand on a turn during the backstroke leg of the 400-yard medley relay, splitting it between the fingers. The accident cost A&M three seconds and placed them in the consolation finals where they could finish no better than seventh, even though they beat the third place team of the championship bracket by three seconds.

"Sonnenberg's accident really hurt us," said Coach Dennis Fosdick. "It was a freak thing."

Sonnenberg's status for today's action is in doubt but the 6'2" junior said he would swim.

Another disappointment was that no Aggie divers reached the finals in the one-meter event.

Arkansas, who is now commanding third place, scored 24 points to the Aggs' zero in diving and posted a 70-47 lead over A&M.

"We will have to fight to get third now," said Fosdick. "We have to catch Arkansas and get a big enough lead so they won't pass us in the other diving events."

SMU leads the three-day event with 170 points. Texas is second at 153, then Arkansas and the Aggies, Houston with 32, TCU with 18 and Rice with 16.

Game Cancelled, Reset Saturday

A&M's baseball home opener against Iowa State was postponed yesterday due to inclement weather.

The two teams are scheduled to clash this afternoon beginning at 1 p.m. on Kyle Field.

Yesterday's cancelled games have been rescheduled Saturday with a doubleheader set at noon.

Starting pitchers in today's doubleheader will be Jackie Binks in the opener and Bobby Falcon in the second game.

On Saturday, Charlie Jenkins and Clint Thomas are scheduled for mound duty.

A&M will return to the diamond Tuesday hosting the Lamar Tech Cardinals in a doubleheader.

Which describes your feelings?

- Yes ___ No ___ I could do more enjoyable things if I had the time.
- Yes ___ No ___ I have a good occupation and my supervisors approve of my work, but personally, I'm not satisfied.
- Yes ___ No ___ My realistic conception of an ideal life is very different from that which I'm living now.

Did at least one question apply to you? If so, it's quite possible that you're not getting the most out of life. Only you know the reasons, but whatever they are, God can help you.

Among many other things in the Bible, He promises freedom and a new life to those who sincerely seek it.

Why don't you come to church this Sunday and let Him know that you want to be free of your chains?

To live a half-life when a full life is available isn't really like you. Is it?
