Owls Win Nine Events For Top Spot

A&M Finishes Second In Rice Meet

A&M dominated the 880-yard run and the long jump for a second place finish in a quadrangular meet at Rice Saturday.

The host Owls won nine events and scored 64½ points to the Aggies' 53½. The University of Houston was third with 27½ points and Abilene Christian fourth with 25½.

Willie Blackmon and Horace Grant crossed the finish line together with Harold Davis immediately behind to give the Aggies a 1-2-3 finish in the 880. All three were timed at 1:55.1.

A&M also finished 1-2-3 in the long jump. Donny Rogers won with a jump of 24' 3½", Tom Owens leaped 23' 3" and pole vaulter Harold McMahan finished third with a leap of 22' 3½".

Houston's Dave McMenamin set a school record in the high jump with his winning jump of 6' 9". A&M-ex Marvin Taylor, jumping unattached cleared 6' 11".

"I was real pleased with the meet," said head coach Charlie Thomas. "We had a couple of disappointments but our squad is improving as a whole. Both relay teams ran well and should get better."

Thomas is taking the two relay teams to Lafayette, La., to the Southern Louisiana Relays this weekend.

"This will be our first chance for our relay teams to concentrate on the relays without worrying about running other races," he said.

Boice Best Wins A&M Heart Award

Boice Best, two-time all-Southwest Conference defensive tackle, was the recipient of the A&M football "Fighting Heart Award" Saturday night.

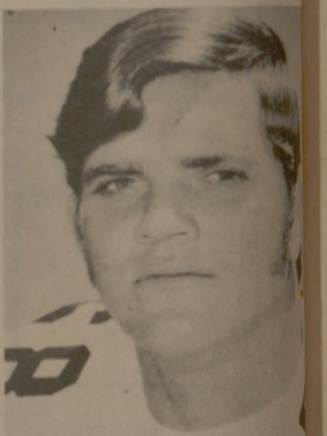

The five-foot high trophy was presented to Best at a football party-dance held in the Ramada Inn.

The award, limited to a senior, is based on such traits as desire, determination and dedication. All members of the varsity football squad vote on it.

Best, 6-1 and 235, made super all-state and honorable mention all-America at Houston Smiley High School. He was all-SWC as a freshman at A&M and made the all conference team both as a junior and senior. He's a physical education major who plans a career in coaching.

Past winners of the "Fighting Heart Award" include Joe Wellborn, linebacker from Tomball, 1965; Dan Westerfield, defensive back from Crawford, 1966; Grady Allen, defensive end from Nacogdoches, 1967; Tom Buckman, end-tackle from Fort Worth, 1968; Jack Kovar, end from Houston, 1969; Winham Beam, defensive tackle from Odessa, 1970; and Joe Mac Kinzie, quarterback from Mineola, 1971. Also, in 1970, Mike DeNiro, defensive end from Youngstown, Ohio, who died in an auto accident, was awarded a trophy posthumously.

Aggies Sweep Three Weekend Tennis Matches

A&M's fastly improving tennis team increased its dual match record to 8-3 with weekend decisions over Stephen F. Austin, LSU and Alabama.

The Aggies now face a busy week as Southwest Conference play resumes with TCU visiting the varsity courts today at 1:30 p.m. A&M has a make-up match with St. Edward's University here on Wednesday and hosts conference co-favorite SMU Friday.

SFA put up little opposition Friday as the Aggies whitewashed the Lumberjacks 7-0. SFA managed only 21 wins in the 105 game competition.

Saturday the Aggies got sweet revenge by topping LSU 6-3. The Tigers had beaten A&M in an exhibition match last fall. The Aggies lost only one singles match to LSU but dropped both doubles contests.

A&M's luck held out as Southeast Conference favorite Alabama fell to the Aggies 6-3.

Dan Courson and Lawton Park were the only Aggies to win all their matches during the busy weekend.

Texas surprised SMU by beating the Mustangs in Austin and throwing the conference race into a tight race in the early going.
