 perience. Many important student proposals may be significantly delayed if the new Rules and Regulations Committee chairman must spend half his time learning the job.

I trust a rational student body to return Curt Marsh to the Senate and to the Rules and Regulations Committee in Thursday's run-off.

It is from our deepest concern from the second floor of Krueger Hall residents that we write to support Jeannine Paletta for the position of Social Secretary for next year's junior class. As residents of Krueger Hall, we wish to recognize Jeannine Paletta as an outstanding candidate, capable of coping with any situation with reliability and competency. She has had two years experience in Student Government and is well-informed of the issues on campus. We are aware of her past experience as Social Secretary and she has effectively fulfilled her position. She has shown an interest in the dorm activities which is recognizable by the fact that she possesses leadership in the Student Government.

We appeal to Mr. Singleton's and Mr. Tiner's supporters to cast their votes for Jeannine Paletta in the run-offs Thursday. Cast your vote for the best qualified candidate of the junior class for Social Secretary. Jeannine Paletta.

In the past week, this column has become more and more a political forum. This is not a letter of condemnation, but one of information. We feel that one aspect of one of our esteemed vice-presidential candidate's record has been left in the dark. It is understandable that Shariq Yosufzai would want to suppress this fact. It just might give people a different impression of his worthiness as the vice-president of our student body.

One of Mr. Yosufzai's alleged goals of office is to give equal representation to the entire student body. This is fine sounding on the surface, and we commend his ideas, but his actions speak louder than his words. It is a substantiated fact that the person in question has not shown the slightest inclination towards this goal as a senator. A person can be fairly certain that when Mr. Yosufzai, McInnis-Schumacher senator for '72-'73, says "I have polled my constituency," he actually means "I have asked the dorm council of Schumacher hall." This leaves out at least 50 per cent of his constituency, as he never makes it to McInnis hall dorm council meetings at all,

much less ask our opinion anything.

We, the men of McInnis, question the political integrity of someone who would ignore the people he has promised to represent. We strongly urge each Aggie to give this man some serious thought, in view of the influential position at the
