Aggies Face Frogs

With renewed hope for a shot at the SWC title following a sweep of SMU, the A&M baseball team faces an old nemesis Friday and Saturday against TCU in Fort Worth.

Two years ago, the Aggies had a 12-0 record when they went to Fort Worth. They were 12-3 when they left. Then last year the Frogs took two out of three in College Station.

A&M will take a 14-3 season mark and a 4-2 league record into the weekend series. The teams will play a 1 p.m. double-header Friday and a 2 p.m. single game Saturday.

TCU has a 20-8 season record and stands 4-4 in league play. Coach Frank Windeger has most of the same players who tied Texas for the pennant last year.

A&M coach Tom Chandler will go with a starting lineup of catcher Mike Frazier (.385), first baseman Paul Miller (.258), second baseman Mike Buxkamper

The pitching rotation will probably see lefthander Bobby Falcon (3-0, 1.71 ERA) in the first game, Bobby Wittkamp (3-0, 3.69 ERA) in the second, and Clint Thomas (0-0, 3.78) in the third. Wittkamp and Thomas are right-handers.

In relief will be Steve Janda (1-0, 0.00), Jim Juhl (2-1, 1.04), Charlie Jenkins (1-1, 5.65) and Jackie Binks (2-0, 6.75).

The Aggies are batting .295 for the season and .289 in league play. Led by Falcon, the pitching staff has been striking out better than one man per inning (135 in 132 innings). Falcon has whiffed 48 in only 26 1/3 innings of work for the full season and 27 in 13 innings of SWC work.

Following the TCU series, A&M hosts Houston, goes to Baylor, and finishes the regular season at home against Texas.
