Larry Galvin Represents Aggies In Bowling Finals

By BURT OWENS

Sophomore Larry Galvin will represent A&M at the Association of College Unions-International's national bowling finals this

College Station, Texas

The finals will be April 14-16 at Syracuse, New York.

This is the second year in a row that A&M has been represented at this national tourna-

Galvin won his finalist spot by capturing first overall in men's bowling at the ACUI Region XII Tournament held Feb. 9th and 10th at Canyon, Texas. In the process of taking first overall, he won first in men's singles, he and his partner, Doug Ocker, won first in doubles and he was a member of the Aggie group that got seventh place in team competition. Galvin said, "After the first threegame set in the team events, I was behind by 96 pins, but in the national finals last year by Bill Kettler, sophomore accounting major who is also a member of this year's team.

The A&M bowling team is not a part of the University Athletic Dept. It is a by-product of the Aggie All-Star bowling league at the Triangle Bowl lanes in Bryan. The league is exclusively for students taking twelve or more hours at the university. The league president picks five people that have the highest averages and they constitute the team that represents Texas A&M. They pay their own way to most tournaments, except for a small sum given them by the University Recreation Dept. However, they were provided transportation to the Canyon tournament by the university.

Galvin said he first bowled when he was eight years old. "One of my friends asked me to be on his team." He bowled at state tournaments when he at Stephen F. Austin High & in Bryan. He said he would to practice 30 or 35 gams week, "but I only get to p about ten because being in Aggie Band takes most of

He has bowled two 300, or fect, games, but averages 1%. said, "I attribute my succe Canyon to being left-handed
