

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States denounced Israel's reprisal raids in the Middle East but demanded equal U.N. condemnation of Arab terrorism.

"Violence by conventional forces and violence by terrorists are to be condemned equally—one is as ugly as the other," Ambassador John A. Scali told the Security Council Tuesday.

He thus emphasized that the United States would veto any council action that struck exclusively at Israel's swift and deadly commando raids into Lebanon last week.

"To the shame of all mankind," Scali said, "acts of violence and terror, often striking down innocent people, are on the verge of becoming a routine footnote to the tragic and unresolved Arab-Israeli conflict.

"In the past few months, hundreds have been killed—innocent men, women and children, diplomats, tourists and bystanders alike," he said.

"We are living today at a time when a knock on the door may signal the visit of an assassin armed with machine gun or a fire bomb...."

"It is intolerable that opening the morning mail may trigger an explosion. It is intolerable that the innocent cannot regard even the family apartment, the social gathering, the Olympic sporting field or the quiet streets as an abode of peace."

Asserting that the violence in the Middle East "has taken on newer and uglier dimensions," Scali said "the United Nations must leave no doubt as to the disapproval of the international community of unwarranted and unnecessary loss of innocent lives from acts of international terrorism and military responses to it."

"We ask for an end to both cross-border attacks and individual acts of violence," Scali said. "If the council will call for this, it will create an atmosphere in which we can move from the assessment of blame to the making of peace."

It was the fourth day of debate on Lebanon's complaint about the Israeli raid that killed three top Palestinian guerrilla leaders.

Ambassador Yosef Tekoah of Israel said that in the absence of effective measures by the United Nations to curb terrorism, Israel has no choice but to protect its people.

When Arab terrorism ends there will be no need for Israeli countermeasures, he said.

The Lebanese ambassador, Edouard Ghorra, invited Israel "on this day of Passover" to allow Palestinians "to pass over the border and reintegrate their homes."

Houston Police Plan To Close Porno Houses

HOUSTON (AP)—Police said Tuesday they plan to close every pornographic movie house in the city.

"We hope to make a case on every theater showing skin flick movies," said Capt. J. M. Allbright of the Houston vice squad.

Allbright said the raid last week on the movie house showing the film "Deep Throat" was the breakthrough in the drive.

Officers raided the Cinema West Art Theatre and seized the film, one of the biggest money-makers in the history of sex films, after courts in other states had ruled it was obscene, Allbright said.

Allbright also said he had been encouraged by the Harris County district attorney's office. He said it had promised speedier preliminary hearings for those accused of showing pornographic movies than in the past.

Allbright said when preliminary hearings have been held in the past, several days after the arrests, the evidence in the cases—the films—has in many cases disappeared, making successful prosecution unlikely.

He said more theaters will be raided.

Only the exhibitors, not the patrons, will be arrested, he said.
