

Reds Ask For Resignation of Cambodian Head

SAIGON (P) — Despite planned reforms in the Cambodian government, North Vietnam made clear in a Radio Hanoi broadcast Wednesday that there can be no progress to peace until President Lon Nol steps down.

Official Washington sources remained optimistic that the reorganization might encourage cease-fire talks, but observers in Phnom Penh tended to support the Hanoi position.

Commenting on Lon Nol's announced plans to form a new government that would include members of opposition parties, Radio Hanoi said the reorganization "is aimed at settling internal conflicts of the Lon Nol puppet government which is deteriorating while confronted with greater and greater military and political defeats."

"Under American pressure," Radio Hanoi continued, "Lon Nol has been forced to introduce a number of so-called opposition elements into his Cabinet so that it may have a 'broader political base.'"

"However reformed it may be, the Lon Nol puppet government still remains an instrument of the U.S. imperialists. . . ."

The Radio Hanoi statements indicated that Cambodian insurgents would continue a military drive in hopes of forcing Lon Nol out.

Kruse To Visit London As Grad

Layne E. Kruse will study for a master's degree in international relations in London next fall through a Rotary Foundation graduate fellowship.

The student body president from McGregor was recently accepted for the M.S. degree work at the London School of Economics.

A graduating senior in economics, Kruse received the fellowship in competition with other Texas applicants. He was sponsored in the program by Rotary International District 587 in Texas.

The fellowship will cover his studies from October, 1973, to August, 1974.

The Cambodian situation appeared to be a playback of Vietnam. The Communists had accused the United States of continuing to "Vietnamize" the war. For nearly five years the peace talks remained stalled because they refused to deal with the Saigon regime of President Nguyen Van Thieu.

Like the Thieu government, the Lon Nol regime has been criticized for being distant from the people, corrupt and oppressive.

U. S. sources said that the United States pressured Lon Nol into agreeing to form a new government to include opposition elements. President Nixon was reported to have sent word that this was his wish with special emissary, Gen. Alexander M. Haig, Jr. Haig visited Phnom Penh last week, and conferred with Lon Nol.

Lon Nol said in a radio address Tuesday night that he will choose a new prime minister and would appoint 11 permanent political figures from his party and two opposition parties to a new council of political advisers.

Informed sources said Wednesday that Lon Nol postponed formation of a new government because he was having trouble finding qualified members of two opposition parties, Republicans and Democrats, who are willing to accept posts.

Lady, 2 Girls Die In Shooting Spree

HOUSTON (P) — A gunman who said "I went out of my head for 15 or 20 minutes" remained in custody here Wednesday night following a shooting spree which left an elderly woman and two young girls dead and two other children wounded.

The man, identified as Larry DeLon Casey, 21, was charged with four counts of murder and two of attempted murder before Justice of the Peace D. F. Thompson. The fourth count stemmed from the shooting he claimed, in a public statement, of a grocery store woman clerk in February.

Casey, 21, speaking to newsmen in a low voice in the presence of his lawyers shortly after his arrest, said he had been "drinking and smoking marijuana," shortly before the shooting spree.

Dead are Beulah K. Davis, 88, gunned down in front of her home as she went to pick up the evening paper; Jana Whotley, 10, shot and then run over by a car; and Claire Jakubowski, 5, shot in the back.

The incident occurred in the affluent Westbury section of southwest Houston shortly after 1 p.m.

Two other small girls, Karen Kurtz, 10, and Lynn Tucker, 10, were wounded. They were reported in fair condition.

"I guess I flew off the handle for a while," Casey told newsmen. He explained he wanted to talk to "clear my conscience and their records too."

"I don't have a real cause," he added. "My father was murdered in New York in 1970 . . . robbed and murdered. I had some revenge in me somewhere against society for this . . . I didn't realize just exactly what I had done until after it happened."

Police said the man apparently had fought with his common law wife earlier in the afternoon and threatened to go and shoot people at random.

They said the rifleman shot his victims and then returned for his wife and took her around the area to show her where the shootings had occurred.

Officer Edgerton said they captured the suspect near the death scene. He offered no resistance.

Police said 25 children were in the area at the time returning home from school.

Women Activist To Speak Here

Cathy Bonner, state director of the Texas Women's Political Caucus, will address the local chapter tonight.

Bonner's topic will be "Women's Changing Role in Society and Politics."

The 7:30 p.m. meeting will be in the Library, Room 226. It is politically non-partisan and open to all interested persons.

Primarily concerned with women's rights and issues, the Women's Caucus encourages women to take a more active part in the political process. The national organization was formed in July, 1971. The Texas group organized in March, 1972. Its chairperson is Frances Farenthold.

Bonner spends most of her time in Austin. She has lobbied for credit reform, child care legislation and family planning reform, among other issues.
