Forfeit Nine 1972 Games

OU Caught In Grade Tampering Case

By RON JENKINS
 Associated Press Sports Writer
 NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The University of Oklahoma Sooners, the nation's No. 2-ranked football team last year, will forfeit eight of its wins, including its Sugar Bowl victory over Penn State, because of recruiting irregularities.

Athletic Director Wade Walker told a press conference the school would forfeit every game in which freshman Kerry Jackson of Houston, Tex., the top quarterback this spring, played. That will mean Oklahoma will retain victories over only Kansas State, Iowa State and Nebraska.

Walker said the school would forfeit nine games. He later explained that the nine counted a loss against Colorado, saying every game in which Jackson played must be counted as a forfeit whether it was a win or a loss. In addition, Walker said, the resignation of offensive line coach Bill Michael had been asked for and received.

Walker said the high school transcripts of both Jackson and Mike Phillips, also of Houston, had been tampered with. He said Michael had admitted he had knowledge of the transcript irregularities.

Head Coach Barry Switzer said he had assured Dr. Paul Sharp, the university president, that no other member of his staff was involved in the incident.

Walker also said that Jackson had stayed in the athletic dormitory during two visits to the OU campus when he was a high school senior.

Both the transcript tampering and the dorm stays are violations of Big Eight Conference regulations, and the conference is investigating, Walker said.

Walker said both Jackson and Phillips will be ineligible to take part in varsity athletics this year at Oklahoma, which won the Big Eight football title last year.

"However, there is no evidence at the present time that either Jackson or Phillips had any knowledge of the tampering or of any wrongdoing whatsoever," Walker said. "As a result, every effort will be made to encourage them to continue their education at the University of Oklahoma."

Switzer said he did not learn of the investigation until this week.

Oklahoma had finished the season at 11-1, including the Sugar Bowl triumph. The forfeits will drop the record to 3-9.

Asked if former head Coach Chuck Fairbanks had any knowledge of the transcript tampering, Walker said, "I can't answer that. I do not know."

Fairbanks is now head coach of the New England Patriots of the National Football League. He left the Sooners several months ago.

The loss of Jackson, the first black quarterback in the school's history could be critical to the Sooners grid fortunes. A sophomore this year, he was far out in front of the No. 1 quarterback-ing job.

Asked what effect losing Jackson would have on the team, he said, "We're competitors and winners and we have to rise to this challenge."

"My concern right now is for these two young men. I will encourage them to stay and seek an education and later perform as athletes."

Michael has been one of Oklahoma's top recruiters, working mainly in the Texas Gulf Coast area. He recruited Greg Pruitt, Oklahoma's All America halfback and two-time Heisman Trophy runner-up.

Presumably, the forfeiture of Oklahoma will mean Nebraska will be declared Big Eight champion.

"If they say we are now the champion, we'll accept it," Nebraska Athletic Director Devaney said in Lincoln.

Netters Beat Baylor, Rice, Prepare For Conference

A&M trounced Baylor 6-1 Saturday and defeated Rice 5-2 yesterday to bring their SWC record to 23-12.

"We got off to a slow start at the beginning of the year," said coach Omar Smith, "but lately we're really putting it all together."

"The boys are really determined to win the Southwest Conference championship or at least finish really high."

Bill Hoover continued his winning streak while the doubles team of Dan Courson and Carter Lomax suffered their first loss in nine matches to Rice's Jorge Berman and Emilio Montano.

The Aggies play defending national champions Trinity today at Varsity Courts at 1:30.

"Trinity graduated some of their team of last year," said Smith, "but they're still a team not to be taken lightly."

The Aggies are now 13-4 in dual matches. They lost to Houston, Oklahoma, Corpus Christi and West Texas State.

After Trinity, A&M travels to Austin Saturday for a match against Texas and returns here for a makeup match against SMU next week.

"These will definitely be our toughest matches," said Smith, "but the boys are real confident that they can win."

The SWC meet will be held in Austin April 26-28. The NCAA Championships will be June 18-23 in Princeton, N.J.

The A&M-Baylor results: Singles — Bill Wright, A&M beat Dan Novak, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4; Hoover, A&M, beat George Maccada, 4-6, 6-0, 6-4; Courson, A&M, beat Stan Smith, 6-3, 6-4; Lomax, A&M, beat Gene Lutz, 6-0, 6-4; Kermit Smith, A&M, beat John Taylor, 7-6, 6-4.

Doubles — Courson and Lomax, A&M, beat Moncado and Smith, 6-3, 6-3; Novak and Taylor, Baylor, beat Hoover and Wright, 4-6, 6-4, 7-6.

The A&M-Rice results: Singles — Emilio Montano, Rice, beat Wright, 7-6, 6-4; Hoover, A&M, beat Jorge Berman, 6-4, 6-0; Dan Courson, A&M, beat Gus Pellizzi, 7-6, 7-6.

Lomax, A&M, beat Barry Johnson, 6-7, 6-3, 7-6; Smith, A&M, beat Scott Turpin, 6-4, 6-4. Doubles — Wright and Hoover, A&M, beat Pellizzi and Johnson; Berman and Montano, Rice, beat Courson and Lomax, 6-4, 6-4.

A&M's Buxkamper Second In SWC Batting Title Race

Longhorn freshman Keith Moreland has opened a big gap over fellow frosh David Buxkamper of A&M in the Southwest Conference batting race.

Moreland, a Carrollton Turner High School graduate, is batting .462—69 percentage points over Buxkamper.

A third sacker, Moreland is carrying on in the fine tradition of Longhorn cornermen who have won seven of 20 batting titles from 1946 through 1965.

Texas, nearing its ninth straight SWC title or a title share, holds a two-game lead over the Aggies.

In the pitching department, Texas Christian's Ricky Means has the most victories—five. He has lost one game. Texas' Ron Roznovsky upped his record to 4-0.

The Longhorns host Rice in a three-game set this weekend then close the season with three games at Texas A&M.
