Maroon-White Clash To Climax Aggie Spirit Drills

By BILL HENRY
Some things will be a sure bet in Saturday's Maroon and White spring scrimmage. You can bet that the Aggies will win, that it will be exciting and that the quarterback you see will not be starting next fall.

Coach Emory Bellard and his staff have split the team into two units for the 1:30 p.m. clash on Kyle Field and with a little help from mother nature, will have an interesting confrontation.

The first offensive and defensive units will comprise the Maroon squad and second teams will be the Whites.

The game concludes A&M's four weeks of drills finding new faces to fill vacancies left by graduating seniors and others missing from the 1972 roster. The coaching staff also initiated a new offensive formation thus junking the heralded Wishbone and made advancements into teaching its new formation to the players.

A&M will now be running out of an adaptation of the T formation with wider splits between the three members of the backfield to give greater mobility on both running and passing plays.

The Wishbone, the coaches feel, was not conducive to both a running and passing game and that defensive units around the country found a way to stop the mighty attack. The Aggies also did not have a capable person to quarterback the Bellard-designed formation.

Overall, Bellard was pleased with his team's progress this spring.

"We had some players come to the front for us this spring," A&M's second-year head mentor said. "Some of these we expected and others were a pleasant surprise. We're pretty thin at most positions but we have some fine talent on the first units."

Some of the pleasant surprises were seniors Bud Trammell, Mike Bruton and Darrell Taliaferro who were not front runners last year.

"They have made great strides this spring," Bellard said. "Trammell has come a long way after having some physical problems in the past. He's quick, strong and has good size for offensive guard. I'm happy with Mike's progress since moving him from linebacker to offensive tackle. He's real quick but not real big. He's going to help us next year. Darrell has done a great job at center where we really needed help with the loss of Skip Kuehn."

Finding able bodies to fill empty holes was the hardest job the coaching staff had to work with during the drills having lost 19 lettermen and had only 19 returning. Out of that 19 lost, 15 were starters last year most of which were on defense. Ten of the 19 returning lettermen are freshmen with only one senior.

The game will be under true game-type conditions complete with punts, kickoffs, extra points and field goals. The Aggies have not worked on the specialty situations much this spring but Bellard feels he has good performers in Lee White and Mark Stanley off last year's freshman team.

There will be no admission charge for A&M students with date and adult general admission tickets for $2. Other students will be admitted for $1.

Starting offensive unit for the Maroon team will be Carl Roaches (5-8, 165) at split end; Bruton (6-1, 205) at left tackle; Bruce Welch (6-4, 245) at left guard; Taliaferro (6-2, 215) at right guard; Trammell (6-2, 250) at right guard; Dennis Smelser (6-4, 240) at right tackle and Richard Osborne (6-5, 225) at tight end.

In the backfield will be Bubba Bean (6-0, 195) at left halfback; Alvin Bowers (6-0, 205) at fullback and Skip Walker (5-10, 185) at right halfback. Starting quarterback will be Tim Trimmier.

Don Dean, who started most of last year's games and was on top this spring, has been listed as unable to play because of a foot injury.

Defensively, the Maroon team will be made up of Don Long (6-3, 235) and Blake Schwarz (6-2, 220) at ends and Ted Lamp (6-2, 225) and Warren Trahan (6-4, 245) at tackles. Linebackers will be Ed Simonini (6-0, 205), Kenny Stratton (5-10, 195) and Garth Ten Naple (6-2, 202). Pat Thomas (5-10, 180) and Tim Gray (6-1, 190) will be cornerbacks while Larry Ellis (6-0, 173) and James Daniels (6-2, 180) will be at safety.

Starting offensively for the White unit will be Roy Murray (5-10, 155) at split end; Doug Jordan (6-2, 215) and Mike Farrell (6-0, 230) at tackles; Ted Ginsburg (6-2, 210) and Scott Knippa (6-1, 220) at guards; Gary Pless (6-3, 265) at center and David Greeno (6-0, 204) at tight end.

In the backfield will be Ronny

Hubby (5-10, 195), Bucky Sams (6-0, 202) and Bob Jennings (6-0, 195). The quarterback will be Jim Hartman (5-11, 190).

Four players are listed for both teams. They are quarterback Trimmier, running backs Sams and Hubby and middle linebacker McCrumby.

Defensively for the Whites will be Glenn Bujnoch (6-5, 230) and Paul Hulin (6-1, 215) at end; and Kent Krueger (6-5, 260) at tackle. Linebackers will be Bill Cazalas (6-0, 195), John Paul McCrumby (6-2, 245) and Tyrone Wright (6-0, 200).

In the secondary will be Tony Blankenship (6-2, 170) and Charles Arndt (5-11, 180) at cornerbacks and Steve Canter (6-1, 185) and Jackie Williams (5-11, 176) at the safeties.

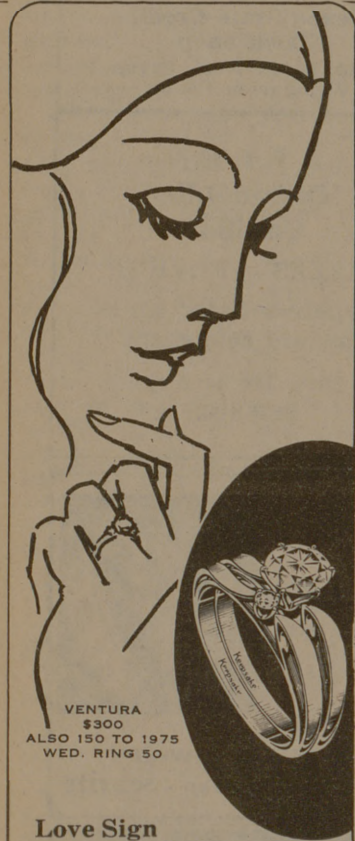

Bellard feels that the defensive secondary has made the most improvement during the drills mainly due to the acquisition of Gray and Daniels from Navarro JC, the talent of freshman Thomas and the returning of

Ellis. "They have got tremendous talent there this year," Bellard said. "These people will stop the sweep and are tremendous pass coverage men besides."

"I'm also pleased with Roaches and Osborne at ends. We didn't know how Richard would react to playing tight end but with our offense, he gets to play both positions and has done well learning blocking assignments."

"Bean has gained a lot of experience and has matured since last fall. He's going to help us as will Bowers and Walker is that backfield."

"We don't have a dependable quarterback though. We've got some great ones coming in this fall that will have to fill the gap quickly for us to be a great football team. All of this year's freshmen will be given a chance to make the varsity because we will not play a freshman schedule. It'll be wide open when drills begin this summer you can bet on that."

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You..

BIRDS' AND BLOSSOMS'

A bird carols its heart out. Pale pink blossoms proclaim the newness of life returning to dormant branches. Spring sunshine gleams on the white pillars of the church. Everywhere is joy and gladness as earth prepares to celebrate the Easter season.

Yet somewhere hearts are heavy. Pain blots out springtime ecstasies. Bird songs torment minds grayed with grief. What message can the Holy Day bring them?

In the darkest hour of the first Good Friday, Jesus, deserted by His followers, rejected by those He came to save, tortured and suffering, said, "Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit."

Follow His example this Eastertime. Whatever the situation, however bleak the outlook—commend your spirit, your very self to God. Your load will be lightened, your being restored.

Your church is an open door which calls you to the joyous realization of God's love as an unassailable source of strength in your life.
