

Texas, Houston Favored In Golf, SMU In Tennis

Aggies Enter Final '73 SWC Tennis, Golf Competition

By BILL HENRY
Battalion Sports Editor
It's now or never for A&M golf and tennis teams as they compete in the Southwest Conference meet through Saturday in Austin.

Houston (38-11) and Texas (33-16) finished ahead of A&M and are expected as top contenders on winning the conference meet.
In golf action, A&M has entered five in the nine team medal play tourney. The top four scores only count toward the championship that is expected to be between Texas and Houston.

A&M's golf entrants are Paul Dieckert, Bill Schmidt, Randy Tickner and Clay Dozier. Tennis entrants are Bill Wright, Bill Hoover, Dan Courson, Carter Lomax in singles competition and Courson-Lomax and Wright-Hoover entered in doubles.

Hoover is the team's top point getter so far this season, winning six of his seven conference matches with the lone loss coming at the hands of SMU's Joe Edles in Wednesday's SMU-A&M clash which the Mustangs won 6-1.
Singles action begins at Texas'

Varsity Courts at 10 a.m. both Friday and Saturday with doubles beginning at 1 p.m.
Both the singles and doubles competition was won by SMU last year with John Gardner, now coach of the Mustangs, defeating teammate George Hardie while the team of Hardie and Tim Vann defeated Texas' Avery Rush and Ron Touchon. Vann, undefeated in conference matches this season, did not enter the conference meet and thus no defending champion is back.

While Texas has won Monte... the Tucker at Albuquerque, Diego, and the Morris Williams at Austin.

In last year's meet, Texas defeated SMU by nine strokes and returns three members of the team in Ben Crenshaw, Buckman and Tony Pfaff. Kansas was third followed by A&M, TCU, Tech, Baylor and Rice.

Individual favorites will be in the top three of the golf tourney. Houston's Bill Rogers who placed second in the play in the same threesome including third-place Mark Tringali. SMU, sixth-place Pfaff and three who tied for eighth were Buckman, Mark Huebner, SMU and Tommy Johnson.

Other top entries include Brodell of Arkansas; Jim Worthing of Baylor; Bruce Lietzke of Brady Miller of Houston; Warren Chancellor of Texas; Clay Delaney of A&M and Shane Fox of Texas.

Texas Headed For Ninth; A&M Series Only Obstacle

It isn't instant, but it is a rerun in the final week of the Southwest Conference baseball race.

Texas is going after its ninth straight title and TCU is in a position—barely—to claim the crown. During Texas' current string of eight straight championships, TCU has shared the title with the Longhorns three times but the Frogs have not been able to displace Texas as the SWC representative in the NCAA playoffs.

The TCU hope is a slim one as Texas moves into College Station for two games Friday and one Saturday against the Aggies, while the Frogs follow the same schedule in Houston against Rice. TCU must sweep its three games and Texas must lose its three for the Frogs to break through as the champions. Or three Texas losses, two TCU victories and a rainout would give the Frogs their fourth title share in nine seasons, but Texas would still go to the NCAA tournament by virtue of its three-game sweep of the Frogs to open the conference season.

It was entering that series that Texas coach Cliff Gustafson made a heady decision. His freshman third baseman was performing well afield, but hitting a puny .200. Gustafson decided to stay with him and "hope he hits a little."

The third baseman is Keith Moreland and he didn't hit a little, after all. He hit a lot. Moreland upped his average six percentage points to .468 last weekend to lead the SWC in batting for the third straight week, drove in two runs to hike his RBI lead to 19 and increased his conference leading hit total to 29. He's tied for the home run lead with four.

The two telling series this weekend could be dominated by the conference's leading pitchers. Texas' Ron Roznovsky boasts a 6-0 record while freshman Richard Wortham is 4-0. They'll probably face Aggie aces Bobby Wittkamp (2-0) and Bobby Falcon (3-2), who has 56 strikeouts in 33 1/3 innings.

Texas is chasing a long-standing tradition in its quest for the title. Longhorn teams have won 47 of the 57 previous SWC titles, 40 of them outright. And Gustafson has won four titles outright and shared another in his five years as Longhorn head coach. Texas' longest string of baseball titles is 11, coming from 1943 through 1954, with no race being held in 1944. The Longhorns have other streaks of eight, seven and six going—and they could all be forgotten by the time Moreland is a senior.
