ing Track Team In Austin Thursday

A&M's rapidly improving track squad travels to Austin Thursday to compete in a triangular meet champion Texas and SWC runnerup Rice. The field events start at 6 p.m. with the running events beginning at 7 p.m. in Texas Memorial Stadium.

A&M will leave stellar perform-said assistant track coach Ted D'Ambrosio has run a 9.6. Nelson, "but this meet isn't that against defending conference important and we wouldn't want to endanger his hurting it more."

Without Jones, the Aggies will be favored in only one event, Donny Rogers' specialty, the long

The 100-yard dash is a toss-up er Scottie Jones behind to nurse with the Longhorns John Lee and A&M's Billy Porter both with 9.5s

Also competing in the 100 will Aggie freshman Sammy Dierschke who will run this distance for the first time this year. In the 880, Texas has five of the six best times in the SWC. The second best time is held by Rice's John Powell who has been injured for over a month. A&M, however, has three 880

"Jones' leg isn't hurt that bad," to their credit. A&M's Gerald men who are just rounding into second to Texas in the Drake Re- McGilvray same class with Texas. Running for A&M will be Harold Davis,

> "We're going to see all the top SWC runners of this event in the meet Thursday," said coach Charlie Thomas. "It'll be wide open. Anybody could win it." A&M's mile relay team finished form and are definitely in the lays Saturday. Although Texas presently has the best time in the nation in this event, the Aggies Willie Blackmon and Horace are improving with every meet and could surprise the 'Horns.
