Track Team Has Problems At Nationals

Injury and illness struck a lethal blow to A&M's chances at the National Collegiate Track and Field Meet held last weekend in Baton Rouge, La., but coach Charley Thomas felt the team did a commendable job under the circumstances.

Unable to compete were Horace Grant, top 880-yard run and anchor man of the mile relay, due to an achilles tendon injury and a bout with a virus; Billy Porter, top sprinter on the sprint relay team, due to injury; and Scotty Jones, nation's fourth best 120-yard high hurdler, due to a leg problem.
