A&M Signs Top Coed Golfer

A&M made history and set an uncharacteristic precedent by signing Brenda Goldsmith of San Antonio, one of the top young women golfers in the nation, to a special scholarship. She will become the first woman athlete on scholarship to attend A&M.

Miss Goldsmith, 17, had originally wanted to attend the University of Texas at Austin but Southwest Conference rules prohibit granting athletic scholarships to women.

The same SWC rules apply to A&M but a special scholarship was arranged through the A&M president's office.

Miss Goldsmith was recruited by Emory Bellard, A&M Athletic Director.

She had scholarship offers from the University of Florida and the University of Arizona but she had said she wanted to stay in Texas.

In 1972 she was ranked No. 7 in the nation among junior girls by Golf U.S.A. magazine and finished second among junior girls at the USGA's Women's Open in Rochester, N.Y.

MOUNDS OF DIRT await spreading on the green of the 10th hole during the renovation of A&M's golf course.

OUT OF THE TRAP

The game of golf reveals something fundamental in the character of man. For when man builds a golf course he deliberately creates hazards for himself. He builds his fairways between clumps of trees . . . dots them with bunkers and sand traps . . . often terraces his greens with confusing slopes. The whole idea—to make things harder for himself!

It is this same trait in human character that constantly concerns our churches. Christianity doesn't teach that life can be—or should be—easy. It teaches us that hazards must challenge us to choose the right way. And it teaches men how to recover from their mistakes—with God's help.

For thousands who find themselves in one of the traps of life . . . our religion offers precious help and reassurance.

"Serving Texas Aggies"

Real Specials Hard To Find, Reports Food Specialist

Meat prices hover at ceiling prices, and "real specials" are hard to find, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt reported this week.

The consumer marketing information specialist, A&M's Texas Agricultural Extension Service, listed beef-department best values as chuck cuts, round steaks and ground beef.

"A substitute hamburger is available in some stores," she said.

This is ground beef with a soy protein added. Its price is substantially lower than regular ground beef; however, this may increase some as the price of soy beans continues to rise. Its protein is about the same as regular ground beef—and fat is lower.

In pork, Mrs. Clyatt recommended Boston butt roasts, quarter-loin sliced and rib-end roasts.

"Fryer chicken and egg prices remain about the same as a week with large-size eggs in best supply, while turkeys have increased a bit.

"Fryer chickens are still good buys in most markets even though prices have advanced considerably the past few months.

"For economy and good eating, invite friends over for backyard barbecued chicken.

"Cheese products also are at high levels."

Mrs. Clyatt cited supply-demand factors as one reason for rising prices, noting "this is true not only in this country, but throughout the world — most of these products aren't in large enough supply to keep pace with consumer demand."

She suggested dry beans as "a summertime must," served hot to accompany chilled salad plates boasting seasonally available fresh fruits and vegetables.

"Many vegetables are behind schedule due to the wet weather earlier, but quality is generally good," she said.

"Dry onion and potato supplies continue on the light side with relatively high price tags, and carrot supplies are less than usual at this season.

"Fresh fruit and vegetable items in best supply at the most reasonable prices include bananas, oranges, cherries, cantaloupes and watermelons.

"Also peaches, grapes, nectarines, celery, okra, black-eye and purple-hull peas, hard-shell squash, cabbage, corn, radishes, bell peppers, green onions and cucumbers."

College Station Swim Club Scheduled For Two Meets

The College Station Swim Club will be busy the remainder of this week, with meets in both Houston and Waco.

CSSC Coach Steve Montgomery said the club's intermediate swimmers go to a "B" and "C" level meet Wednesday at Meyerland Country Club in Houston.

They will be joined by the more advanced swimmers for the three-day Huaco Invitational at Waco beginning Thursday. The Waco meet is for levels "A" through "C."

More than 50 local boys and girls will participate in the two AAU-sanctioned meets, Montgomery noted.
