

News Summary

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON—Congress returns from a month-long recess Wednesday with operating money for the White House, the Treasury and the Postal Service among the first items of Senate business. The House will begin debate on a compromise bill authorizing the State Department to spend $682 million.

WASHINGTON—William E. Colby was sworn in as director of the Central Intelligence Agency, succeeding James R. Schlesinger.

WASHINGTON—The Organization of American States began a series of meetings on restructuring the hemispheric organization. The United States will face a campaign among various members to drop economic and diplomatic sanctions against Cuba.

WASHINGTON—The White

House said it will file its next legal paperwork in the lawsuit over the Watergate tapes Thursday. U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica ordered President Nixon last week to turn over for private judicial inspection tape recordings of several meetings Nixon held with aides. The White House has until Thursday to respond.

WASHINGTON—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., said there is nothing more Congress can do to fight inflation and rising interest rates. He said Congress has given the president authority to act, and urged a return to stricter wage-price controls similar to Phase 2.

WASHINGTON—Senate investigators are preparing a confidential report on their recent findings on political espionage and campaign financing in preparation for the return this month of the Watergate committee. The date of new hearings has not been set.

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia—Cambodian soldiers trying to reopen a highway to the capital of Phnom Penh were pulled back Tuesday. The Cambodian command said it had a new strategy, that the soldiers were too tired to fight and that fresh troops would be sent in Wednesday to renew the 10-day battle to reopen Highway 4. Field reports said the soldiers also were angry at not being paid.

ALGIERS—Black liberation movements in Africa will seek more aid from nonaligned nations opening a summit conference Wednesday in Algiers. The movements are fighting against Portuguese and French colonial rule and against white-minority governments in Rhodesia and South Africa.

BEIRUT, Lebanon—Oil ministers of 10 Arab states may have been so divided over establishing a common oil policy as a weapon against Israel that the matter was left off the envoys' agenda, according to oil industry sources in Beirut. The meeting ended Tuesday with no announcement of agreement on the issue.

A&M Car Club To Hold Rally

A Saturday rally ending at Texas World Speedway will get the A&M Sports Car Club rolling on the 1973-74 school year. Club President Bill Williams said the rally intended for inexperienced drivers and navigators will begin at 2 p.m. with registration and technical inspection. Cars will begin leaving Parking Lot 50 east of Zachry Engineering Center at 3 p.m.

The rally route will end at TWS. Refreshments, a speedway tour, exhibits and race and rally movies will be shown.

A drawing for two free tickets to the Oct. 6 USAC Twin 200s will be held.

Contestants in the TAMSCC rally will be given route instructions. They must also answer specific questions about the route to be eligible for prizes.

The club meets every second and fourth Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m. in the old College Station City Hall, 101 Church St.
