Shockers Bring Experience to A&M

Dvorak, Pennock, Lewis Lead Wichita State Attack

The outlook for 1973 is bright for the Wichita State Shockers as they provide a cast of characters that includes 33 lettermen, 13 of them three-year letter winners.

With a solid quarterbacking corps, an excellent offensive line, good potential at receivers, quality linebacking and defensive front the Shockers could be the best under Coach Bob Seaman at WSU. Shortage of proven running backs and a green group of defensive halfbacks needs to be overcome in order for success to be written in the 1973 final tally book.

Quarterbacking is the strong point of the offense this season with transfer Chet Pennock taking over the reins. Pennock (6-0, 185, Jr.) was a junior college all-America and total offense leader last year at Fort Scott J.C. Pennock broke every record Kansas State QB Lynn Dickey set when he was a prep for the Trojans. Pennock is backed up by Tom Owen (6-2, 205, Sr.), the starting Shocker field general for the past two seasons. Owen could not out-fight Pennock for the position after missing spring ball due to a fracture of the right elbow. Owen hit on 69 passes for 689 yards and two TDs last year but he got good support from Gary Monty (6-2, 180, Sr.) who'll provide additional depth. Monty went 23-61 last year for 272 yards and a pair of scores as a part-time starter.

Monty finished the spring as the top QB and is extremely versed at running the football. Running backs may be a problem but Jim Fenwick (5-7, 175, Sr.) heads a cast with 387 yards gained. Fenwick was the second leading rusher a year ago and is probably the toughest runner the Shockers have. Another rugged runner is Fred Speck (6-0, 200, Sr.) who rushed for over 100 yards in the season's finale against New Mexico State.

Mark Ayesh (6-9, 215 So.), a transfer from Kansas University, is the top hand at fullback. Backing him up is Tim King (6-1, 210, Jr.), a transfer from Garden City J.C.

The receivers are headed by newcomer Stan Ricketts (5-10, 170, Jr.) of Fort Scott J.C. where he was the main target of Pennock. Another newcomer expected to see action at wide receiver is Phil Benning (5-7, 170, Fr.) who could also play at running back.

Alternating at tight end will be veteran Bill Moore (6-0, 205, Sr.) and Randy Phillips (6-2, 205, Sr.) who played defensive end last year. In the line it's veteran to the core, with all-Missouri Valley Conference trying to come back from an ankle injury. Presently at the guards are Ray Burford (6-5, 255, Sr.) and Glen Adkins (6-2, 200, Jr.), at the tackles are Ted Weglarz (6-2, 230, Sr.) and Quinton Kay (6-2, 230, Jr.) with Steve Anderson (6-0, 205, Jr.) holding down center.

In the trenches, Rick Dvorak is the man at tackle with Chris Crowe (6-1, 240, Sr.) as his running mate.

Dvorak, a 6-4, 235-pound all-America candidate, led the team in tackles the last two seasons and in five different games last year. He set a single game tackle record with 27 unassisted stops and dropped the quarterback ten times last year. He has been all-MVC two years in succession and is considered the pivotal point for the defense in '73.

Defensive ends may also be a stronghold this year with veteran Marvin Kellum after his fourth letter and Ed Collins (6-1, 200, Jr.) coming back after being injured for most of last season.

The linebacker corps looks strong with the Casey brothers filling two of the four spots. Mickey (5-11, 185, Sr.) and Marty (6-1, 190, So.) handle one side with Charlie Roberts (6-0, 190, Sr.) and Ken LeBlanc (5-10, 200, Jr.) taking care of the other. The defensive secondary took a beating by graduation loss safety Al Lewis (6-0, 190, Sr.) has three letters and will be a key all-MVC bet for '73. Lewis won MVC player of the week for his performance against the Aggies last year.

Phil Ellis (5-8, 170, Jr.) of Northeastern Oklahoma J.C. was shot at a defensive halfback position along with Cliff Fanning (6-2, 190, So.).

Don Burford, a former running back converted to linebacker, will do the punting and has the potential to be one of the best in the Valley. Don kicked for a 40 average.

John Potts will do the field goal kicking and was all-MVC last year for his abilities to put the ball through the uprights.

National Powers Dominate Schedules of SWC Teams

By KEVIN COFFEY Sports Editor

Sellout crowds and national powers highlight the opening of the 59th Southwest Conference football season with five teams slated for action Saturday night.

Last season SWC teams ran up a 22-11-1 record against outside foes, the best showing in 22 years. The conference will be hard pressed to match that performance as the schedule calls for meetings with five members of last season's final top 10 and nine teams that appeared in bowl games.

Arkansas and Baylor open with the reigning No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the nation with the Hogs traveling to California to meet USC and the Bears hosting Oklahoma.

Southern Cal and OU are joined by Bluebonnet Bowl foes LSU and Tennessee, Orange Bowl loser and perennial power Notre Dame, Big Eight bowl teams Colorado, Iowa State and Missouri and Big 10 champ Ohio State for appearances on conference schedules this season.

Arkansas's trip to Los Angeles to face the defending national champion Trojans sees the Hogs seeking revenge for last year's 31-10 thrashing by USC. Arkansas was ranked the nation's top team before the 1972 opener and USC currently holds that distinction. A crowd of 65,000 is expected with Southern Cal a 21-point favorite.

Baylor expects a sellout crowd of 48,000 in Waco to see the Bears' inaugural against the 12th ranked Sooners.

OU coach Barry Switzer begins his first season as head coach of the Sooners, replacing Chuck Fairbanks who moved on to the New England Patriots.

Baylor coach Grant Teaff says his team is "20 to 30 per cent better than last year but our schedule is about 40 per cent harder."

Last season's 5-6 effort by the Bears earned Teaff "coach of the year" honors but the Bruins find themselves 10-point underdogs to the Sooners. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

The conference is slated as the favorite in each of the other three inter-sectional clashes.

Dave Smith opens his reign as SMU mentor as the Mustangs entertain Santa Clara in Texas Stadium.

Smith returns to SMU after spending eight years on Mockingbird Lane as an assistant under the disposed Hayden Fry. Smith brings the Wishbone offense with him after a 7-4 record at Oklahoma State last season. A student boycott of the game by SMU students over preferential treatment of athletes is expected to keep the crowd under 30,000. SMU is a 28-point favorite.

Texas Tech hosts Utah at Jones Stadium in Lubbock to open the season for the Red Raiders. Tech dealt the Utes a 45-2 setback in last year's opener and is a 17-point favorite in the 7:30 contest.

The Rice Owls and Houston Cougars tangle to determine the leader in their three game series at 8:00 p.m. in the Astrodome.

Rice held Houston on the one-year line as time ran out last year to preserve a 14-13 victory. Houston won the 1971 contest 23-21.

The Coogs are a seven-point favorite with a sellout crowd of 55,000 expected to witness the cross-town rivalry.

Texas, seeking its sixth consecutive SWC crown doesn't play until Friday, Sept. 21 when they travel to Miami to play the Hurricanes.

TCU opens Sept. 22 against Texas-Arlington in Fort Worth.
