Impalas Leap over Ags In Rugby Battle, 16-10

By LYNN KENNEDY The Texas A&M Rugby Club can chalk one up to experience. The east African Kenya Impalas won a 16-10 victory over A&M. To quote the lyrics of a popular country and western tune "kicking and gouging in the mud and the blood and the beer," would best describe the rugger's first defeat of the new season.

timing in ball control. The Africans punted the ball out-of-bounds and "knocked" (fumbled forward and kicked forward) in a style the first 15 was unaccustomed to. Africa scored consistently in the first half and after an A&M "try" (td) was called back in the first few minutes of the second half the Aggies had to compromise their game plan in an attempt to catch the Impalas. The Aggies gave up three successful field goals (three points each) on penalties and were unable to stop two "trys" by the charging Kenya squad.

kicks and one "try." The Thursday duel was only one of five stops in Texas for the Kenya Impalas, who are on a three week tour of stateside competition. The Kenya squad is made up of men whose hobby is rugby. Peter Evans, a school-master on the Impala first 15 said he is spending his holiday on this American tour and he added that the majority of the club is made up of engineers, agrarians, and even a veterinarian.

Agnew Seeks Halt To Jury Probe

BALTIMORE (AP) — A special federal grand jury opened an unprecedented investigation Thursday, a political graft probe of Vice President Spiro T. Agnew. At the same time, Agnew's lawyers planned to go to court to stop the inquiry.

John Gunn drew the only Aggie scores of the day with two free motion would be filed, possibly as early as the first of next week, seeking a temporary injunction to halt the grand jury proceedings. Such a move had been expected from the lawyers Thursday morning before the jury session started.

While the Impalas are staying in College Station they are housed with members of the A&M Club. The Aggies say that you play the game to win but after the game everyone gets to know each other at the traditional victory party which is always hosted by the home team. The evening party included exchanging of gifts between the club captains. The Aggies presented the Impalas with a pennant and a beer mug and the Kenya squad gave the White team a plaque and Impala ties. Kenya travels to Dallas this weekend for a game with the Dallas Rugby Club.

Jobs Provided At Happy Hour

Almost 1,100 student jobs were processed at the Remote Computing Center and the Teague Computing Center during the first week of Happy Hour operations.

One of the lawyers, Judah Best, said in Washington that a

United Fund Drive Begins

A&M's United Fund Drive begins Monday in support of both the College Station United Chest and the Bryan United Fund. W. B. Lancaster, TAMU payroll services manager, heads this year's campus campaign. He noted that while both community drives have monetary goals — $112,791 for Bryan and $29,000 for College Station — no set amount is prescribed for the university.

The first day of Happy Hour, Sept. 17, 260 student jobs were processed. On the remaining days of the first week of operation the total student job count was 113, 209 and 235. The DPC has the capabilities of processing in excess of 750 student jobs during Happy Hour, and therefore encourages all students to take advantage of this service.

Agnew was notified last month by federal prosecutors that he was under investigation for possible criminal violation of tax, extortion, bribery and conspiracy laws. He has insisted he is innocent of any wrongdoing.

"We simply want to ensure that every member of the university community is contacted and given the opportunity to contribute to these highly deserving endeavors," Lancaster said. He emphasized that persons contributing through the university campaign may designate their gifts for either the College Station or Bryan drives, or they may contribute to both. Persons desiring to contribute to both are requested to specify amounts which should be given to each drive.

Mappy Hour, established by the DPC in cooperation with the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, is a time during which all student jobs are executed free of charge. Happy Hour is scheduled from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., every Sunday through Thursday, throughout the regular school year. All students are eligible to participate in Happy Hour. The DPC is providing this added service for students with the belief that it will continue to be a success, and that an increased number of students will utilize Happy Hour.

The allegations against him center on kickbacks from contractors during the 1960s when Agnew was chief executive of Baltimore County and then governor of Maryland. There also have been published reports which Agnew has denied that he received illegal cash after becoming vice president in 1969.

TAMU President Jack K. Williams has formally endorsed the campaign. "College Station's United Chest and the United Fund of Bryan deserve our wholehearted support," Dr. Williams said. "They directly benefit 15 organizations which serve people of all ages and background in our communities."

In a related development, three CBS television crewmen were detained by federal marshals after they were found on the roof of an eight-story building next door to the federal court house where the grand jury was sitting.
