No. 2 Eastern Power Invades Kyle Field Saturday

By TED BORISKIE
The Boston College Eagles are bringing to Kyle Field Saturday a team that has been pegged by most to be the second most powerful in the east, behind only mighty Penn State.

The strength of the Eagles will be its offensive unit, which has nine of the starting 11 and 16 of the top 22 returning from last year's team. The top returnee is undoubtedly junior tailback Mike Esposito. Esposito set a school rushing record for sophomores last season with 930 yards on 182 carries for hefty 5.1 average. In addition, he totaled 165 yards on 16 pass receptions and two touchdowns and was kickoff return leader with 14 for 365 yards and a 26.1 average. (A former high school all-American, he has a 4.5 speed in the 40 yard dash and was the Eagles leading scorer last year with 54 points.)

Directing BC's attack will be senior quarterback Gary Marangi, who started for all of last year's 4-7 season. This year he has completed 10 of 18 passes for a 55.0 norm and ranks seventh on the Eagles' all-time passing list. Backing him up are Mike Kruczek and Jerry Concannon. Concannon's Brother Jack is the former BC great and presently plays for the Dallas Cowboys.

In addition to Esposito, the Eagles are looking to fullback Keith Barnette and Frank Smith to hammer out yardage. Barnette was the leading rusher for the freshman team last year and Smith started for the varsity. Smith is presently averaging 6.3 a carry.

The other halfback spot is clearly the property of senior Phil Bennett. Last year he was the number two ground gainer behind Esposito with 721 touchdowns. He had a 253 yard game against Temple last year which is the BC individual game rushing record.

The receivers are sophomores Dave Zumbach at the split end position and Bob Rush at the end. Zumbach was the top scorer for last year's team while Rush had 13 touchdowns for 124 yards and a 9.5 average. At 6-3, 235 pounds, his greatest asset is as a blocker.

The offensive line has had but experience with junior Gary O'Hagan the only senior in the interior. Gordie Gortie is at the other tackle spot. Tom Congdon and Greg are the guards. Steve Congdon is the center with tackle Art and guard Art Driscoll. Line reserves. Saturday's will have the matchup of the nation's biggest college offensive lines. The Eagles age 242 pounds to a man to 248.

The BC defense is led by backer captain Jim Combs. He was named the "outstanding defensive player" of the year at the conclusion of spring. Joining him in Boston are four-man linebacking corp Paul Martin, Bob Howard, Brian Clemente.

On the defensive line, Bentzel and Paul Martin ends with Joe Sullivan. Turner as tackles. BC's four averages 224 pounds compared to 242 for the Sophomore sensation Scialabba and junior hold down the defensive slots while junior John is the lone safety.

Soccer-style kicker Frank fort handles the place kicking. Esposito steps in to handle ing. Steinfort hit five of field goals and 13 of 15 last year. Esposito punts 36.6 average and had blocked.

AGGIE LINEBACKERS Garth Ten Napel, Ken Stratton and Ed Simonini face the challenge of trying to shut down the highly touted Boston College running attack Saturday.

Esposito to Lead Eagles

A year ago, football buffs in the East got a big belly-laugh when lightly regarded Army upset A&M on the Aggies' home turf. The 24-14 loss undoubtedly was A&M's worst game of the 1972 season.

This week, Eastern football will be its offensive unit, which has nine of the starting 11 and 16 of talented Boston College, a club that will seriously challenge Penn State for supremacy in the East this year.

The star of the Boston College Eagles is a junior running back, Mike Esposito, who stands 6-1, weighs 190 and runs the 40-yard dash in 4.5 seconds. He has the strength to break tackles and almost unbelievable moves.

Last year, as a sophomore, he ran wild, netting 930 yards on 182 runs for a 5.1-yard average. After two games this season, he has 231 yards on 31 carries for a 7.4 average and ranks 11th in the nation in rushing.

Boston College fans call him the most explosive and exciting running back in B.C.'s 80 years of football.

Last week the Aggies lost a five-point decision to LSU, 28-23, in Baton Rouge while in nearby New Orleans, Boston College was losing a five-point decision to Tulane, 21-16.

Saturday night's contest in Kyle Field will pit two talented teams on the comeback trail.
