"Our President openly defies our courts and he has placed him-self above the law," said Inouye, the first member of the Senate Watergate committee to call for Nixon's resignation.

The action came in the wake of the firing of special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox, the resignation of Atty. Gen. Elliot L. Richardson and the discharge of Deputy Atty. Gen. William D. Rucklehaus.

The delegates, some pounding tables with their fists, shouted their approval of the resolution presented by the 2-member executive council of the 13-.4-million-member labor deferation.

Not a single voice of dissent was heard in the huge meeting room of the American Hotel as the vote was taken.

The AFL-CIO, which last year aided in Nixon's re-election by officially remaining neutral in the presidential campaign, was the first major organization with political clout to call for Nixon's ouster.

"Impeachment is not a prospect we contemplate with pleasure," said federation President George Many in reading the resolution to the convention. But, he added, "We believe that the American people have had enough."

"Justice must be done, the risks of not doing it being more than a democracy can safely bear," the resolution said. In his speech, Inouye said Nixon should 'place our national interest and welfare above all other concerns" and resign.

"The people of the United States have suffered enough," he said. "They must be spared this new pain and trauma" that would result from an impeachment proceeding.

The events of the past 48 hours, Inouye said, show "that our President is prepared to tear apart the national spirit and na-
