

Fighting Irish Climb in Poll

Ohio St. Still on Top, Texas Tech 15th

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Notre Dame, seeking its first national college football championship since 1966, climbed from eighth place to fifth in The Associated Press ratings Monday while the top four teams, headed by Ohio State, held onto their positions for the third week in a row.

Notre Dame's 23-14 victory not only ended Southern California's 23-game unbeaten streak but dropped the defending champions from sixth to ninth, virtually killing their chances for a second consecutive national title.

Ohio State, which clobbered Northwestern 60-0, received 36 votes for first place and 1,148 points from the 62 sports writers and broadcasters who participated in this week's poll.

Louisiana State stayed unbeaten with a 33-29 squeaker over South Carolina that boosted the Tigers from ninth to seventh. Arizona State cracked the Top Ten for the first time this season, rising from 11th to eighth by routing Oregon State 44-14.

Southern California edged UCLA, its crosstown Los Angeles rival, for ninth place. The Bruins made the Top Ten by walloping California 61-21.

Previously unbeaten Missouri skidded from seventh to 12th after losing to Colorado 17-13 while Nebraska slipped from 10th to 13th in the wake of a 17-17 deadlock with Oklahoma State.

Tennessee, rebounding from its only setback, moved up from 14th to 11th by downing Texas Christian 39-7.

Colorado and Auburn, both among the elite earlier in the season, moved back in, Colorado by beating Missouri and Auburn with a 7-0 victory over previously unbeaten Houston.

The Top Twenty, with first-place votes in parentheses, season records and total points. Points tabulated on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1:

1. Ohio state (36)	6-0-0	1,148
2. Alabama (12)	7-0-0	1,052

Volleyball Champs Decided

Intramural Playoff Set Thursday

Intramural play has determined all but the University Champs in volleyball.

The championship match will be played Thursday at 5 p.m. in the third floor annex of G. Rolie White Coliseum. E2, Corps winners, will meet STAT, off campus champs.

In the civilian playoffs STAT met Walton. Jan Szalowski played the major role on offense as he spiked in most of STAT's points. Henry Ander, Ersen Arseven, Larry Gianchetta, Kris Moor and Davy Scott set the ball for Szalowski's attacks.

Walton played a very fast game. The first game score, STAT over Walton, 15-13, showed the dorm champs played a close battle.

Jeff Hough, Tom Nemky, Robert Shipman, Donald Stahle and Steve Wagner, saved many scoring attacks through diving and dipping for Walton. In the second game, the effort fell apart and Walton lost 15-6.

Also winning a crown were the Boozin' B2 fish, who overcame II, taking the Corps fish volleyball championship. Mike Galvin played an especially important part of the fishes' serve, set and spike attack. He was backed up by Wayne Crooks, Gordon Fort, Jim Kelly, Keith Vickers and Spenser Wendt.

Girl's volleyball champs are L-

1, an off-campus group. They won all their games and went into finals against Keathley.

Both teams exhibited talent, but Keathley tended to rely on two players heavily. LI's line-up reads: Joyce Krenek, Rhonda Motal, Marietta Perroni, Dru Mahler, Libby Pearson and Lucy Pearson. All proved to be aggressive players executing their serves and returns well.

Football quarter finals for Corps upperclassmen found E2 over B1, 20-2; F1 over I2&S14, 6-0; and Sq 8 over LI, 14-0.

E2 proved to be better organized than B1 with two passes which led to scores by Thomas and McCabe. Hovel intercepted, setting up the McCabe score. The team was quarterbacked by Ellis. B1's Crane took the safety in for the team's only score.

Frels and Leopold quarterbacked F1 in a hard fought game. I2 played with determination, but F1 connected at the right time for the push for six.

Royal of Sq8 ran 19 yards after receiving a long pass from quarterback Harvey for the first touchdown. Again it was Harvey, but this time to Newton for a 21-yard scramble to a TD. LI's Stafford ran 19 yards after an interception but the team couldn't score.

Aggie Rodeo Winners Named

Rosemary Watson and Les Mason earned the titles of overall champions at the All-Aggie Rodeo Saturday night.

The nationally ranked rodeo club gave about $3,000 in prize money plus belt buckles for the event winners and overall champs.

For the past two years, the club has gone to national finals and is the only Aggie rodeo club to accomplish this since 1948. The club is ranked fourth among other colleges in the nation and has been Southern Regional Champs for two years in a row.

All proceeds from the rodeo go to traveling costs for the club, social events and the spring rodeo.

Dennis Reed, secretary of the club, says that the club's purpose is to promote intercollegiate rodeo as a sport. Many of the members already have a knowledge of rodeo, but anyone is welcome to join. "We will be happy to work with someone to teach them," Reed commented.

Reed attributes the ability of the team to the "better quality of members" that they have had join.

The All Aggie Rodeo follows National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association rules and overall champs are determined according to the most points accumulated by a member in two or more events.

Winners of each event were: Les Mason, bareback riding; Murray McDermott, calf roping; Mike Foreman, steer wrestling; Grady Groves, bull riding; Les Mason, saddle bronc riding; Jerry Hayes, ribbon roping; Penny Menefee, barrel racing; Angie Averhoff, goat tying; Nancy Adair, breakaway roping; and Russell Bunch, wild horse race.

The Aggie rodeo is in its 25th year and drew a crowd of about 1,500.

Fem Volleyball Plays Tonight In DeWare

The women's varsity volleyball team will meet Mary Hardin-Baylor tonight at 6 in DeWare Field House.

Last week playing against this same team, the A&M girls took the match 15-2, 15-6. The coeds played in a four-team round-robin meet at Baylor.

The girls placed second, beating McClennon College 15-5, 15-3, but losing to Baylor in a three-game match. After a strong comeback in the second game, the Bears outplayed A&M 15-4; taking the match and tourney.

The team is headed for district play in a week at Texas Southern University in Houston. The Ags will meet Texas Southern, University of Houston, Sam Houston State and Rice.

"They stand a good chance to do well," Kay Don, women's athletics director said. "The team is working well together now and if they keep pulling together a first or second is in sight."
