

Arkansas Tilt Seen as 'Rugged Game'

Defense, Morton Featured in Tough Razorback Attack

A&M Coach Emory Bellard looks for a rugged football game against Arkansas Saturday in Fayetteville because "No one has kicked Arkansas around."

Bellard said Arkansas' three losses came to Southern Cal, Oklahoma and Texas.

"They held Southern Cal to 17 points, Oklahoma State got most of their points from the kicking game and Texas broke some long runs," Bellard said.

"Arkansas has outstanding linebackers and their front five is very quick and extremely aggressive," Bellard said.

He also had praise for Arkansas running back Dickey Morton: "He's one of the best backs in the country. Everyone who plays them winds up and tries to stop Morton but nobody has."

Morton may have his troubles as he runs against A&M's rapidly improving offensive line.

Our line gets better every game," said Bellard, "but you can't single out improvement to any one player. Glenn Bujnoch, Bruce Welch, Dennis Smelser and Billy Lemons are young and are better every game. Ricky Seeker, our center, was experienced at the start of the season but he's gone from good to better."

Bellard was quick to defend cornerback Tim Gray, who has come under some fire for allowing Baylor's Charlie Dancer to sneak by him for a crucial 37-yard pass.

"I think Tim played an outstanding ball game with the exception of that one play," said Bellard. "He made some key tackles and blocked that punt which was good for a safety. He was beaten only that one play and every defensive back, I don't care how good he is, gets beaten every once in a while."

Linebacker John Paul McCrumbley started his first game against Baylor last week but Bellard hesitated to say whether he would start against Arkansas.

"We've got three fellows (McCrumbley, Kenny Stratton and Grady Wilkerson) who are just real close in ability at that position," said Bellard. "We will play whoever we feel is best suited to defend against the type of offense of whatever team we're playing."

Bellard said the team was gaining more confidence in quarterback David Walker with every game.

"Performance provides opportunities for leadership," said Bellard. "Walker's sort of a low-key performer but the fellas are gaining a lot of confidence in him and he could develop into quite a leader."

Injurywise, A&M has been more fortunate this year. Defensive tackle Warren Trahan injured his ankle against the Bears and although it could bother him against Arkansas he is still expected to play. Freshman quarterback David Shipman, who underwent knee surgery last week, was not hurt as bad as some feared and is expected to make a fast recovery and be ready in plenty of time for spring training.

Texas

AUSTIN — Texas linebacker Glen Gaspard and halfback Tommy Landry suffered bruised knees in workouts Tuesday but Longhorn officials said they would more than likely be ready for Saturday's nationally televised Southwest Conference clash with Southern Methodist in the Cotton Bowl.

Gaspard re-bruised the same knee which has been bothering him all season but finally healed last week.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal moved freshmen Charles Wilcox and Ivey Suber to the varsity Tuesday, making a total of 10 frosh on the squad.

R. M. Patterson, defensive line coach, said of SMU "We're facing probably the two best backs in one backfield we'll face all year."

Patterson was speaking of Alvin Maxson and Wayne Morris, the M&M boys.

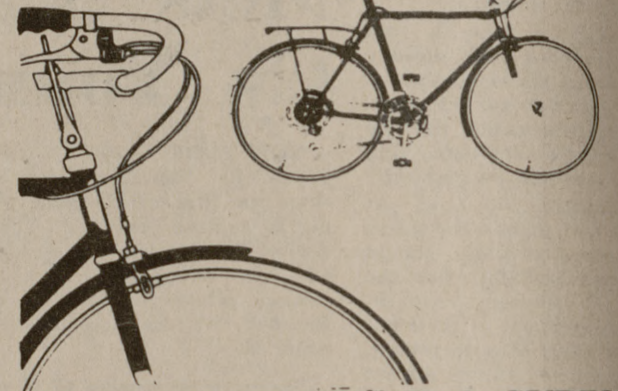

"They are solid players and good blockers who can break a game open at any minute," Patterson said.

Landry Refuses Changes

By DENNE H. FREEMAN Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas Coach Tom Landry, joking "I'm not without coaching help," stoutly refused to make any lineup changes Tuesday in the fast-fading Cowboys and defended much-maligned cornerback Charlie Waters.

The Cowboys have lost three out of their last four games with the secondary taking a thorough bombing from enemy quarterbacks.

"Our club hasn't quit and we will not make any changes," Landry said. "I think our team can get it done, but we've got to get it done now." Landry said one of the big problems on the team has been "negative thinking."

He said "A lot has been said about Waters. If I could play with 40 like him the way he tries I wouldn't have any problems."

Waters had two crucial interference calls go against him and was burned on a touchdown pass in Sunday's 30-16 National Football League loss to Philadelphia.

"They threw eight passes at Charlie and only completed one," Landry said. "He had a very good game except for one interference call on a touchdown pass. I like people like him who give you 100 per cent."

Landry said at present he had no plans to call the plays for quarterback Roger Staubach. Dallas has gone to two Super Bowls with Landry calling the plays for his quarterbacks.

"Whether my calling the plays would make a difference, I'm not sure . . . but I won't do it at this point," Landry said.

The Cowboys, who are seeking a record eighth consecutive trip to the NFL playoffs, meet Cincinnati, also carrying a 4-3 ledger, in Texas Stadium Sunday.

SWC Posts Winning Record

DALLAS (AP)—The Southwest Conference has posted its 52nd winning non-conference season in 59 years with a 17-14 record, but it was tough sledding against the Big Eight, the Big Ten and the Southeast Conference.

The SWC was 9-10 against major conference opposition. The record reads two wins and no losses each against the Western Athletic Conference, Missouri Valley and Atlantic Coast Conference.

It was 1-1 against the Pacific Eight, 2-5 versus the Big Eight, 0-1 versus the Big Ten, and 0-3 against the SEC.

Last year the SWC was 20-10-1 against outsiders.

UT Announces Boston College As 11th Game

The University of Texas has announced it has decided to add an 11th football game to its 1974 schedule.

The Longhorns have signed a contract to play Boston College on Sept. 14 in Boston.

The game will be the first one of the season for Texas. This is the first time since the 11th game rule was sanctioned by the NCAA in 1970 that the Horns have played the extra contest.
