AP Awards Leaks' Record Performance

Roosevelt Leaks, the University of Texas' bruising fullback was named National College Back of the Week by the Associated Press.

Leaks led the Longhorns in their come from behind victory over SMU with 342 yards rushing, a Southwest Conference record.

The 220-pound junior from Brenham has totaled 744 yards in the 'Horns last three games.

"There was a lot of us who weren't playing as we should," Leaks says of Texas' first four games, which saw the perennial conference champions manage only a 2-2 record.

Then Leaks got the word from a member of the Arkansas band the day before the Longhorns met the Razorbacks. The word went something like this:

"Good luck tomorrow; you're gonna need it."

Leaks has brought nothing but bad luck to Texas' opponents ever since. He rushed for 209 yards and three touchdowns in a 34-6 trouncing of Arkansas and followed that with 193 yards and two TDs as Rice fell 55-13.

Trucking isn't just for truck drivers.

It's also for college graduates. The American trucking industry is a vast, complex, sophisticated transportation network. A network that moves almost anything you can think of. Almost anywhere you can think of. And to keep things running smoothly, it needs people. All kinds of people. From computer analysts to cost accountants. Traffic controllers to communications specialists. People like you. In return, trucking offers you good pay. Plus a chance to grow fast and go as high as you want to. Because trucking is booming. And it's already the largest and fastest growing segment of the transportation industry. So you can start to contribute some mighty important things to the cause. Now. Not ten years from now. How do you start a career in this dynamic business? It's easy, if you know where to look. First, try your placement office. See if there are any trucking concerns interviewing. Next, check out your college placement manual for names and addresses. Finally, look to the surrounding area for companies in operation. Find out for yourself what a great career trucking can be. Even if you don't drive.

AMERICA'S PREMIER RADIAL TIRE MAKER.

B.F. Goodrich has brought you this message because we're proud to be a part of the American trucking industry. And, as a major developer of radial truck tires, torsilastic springs, caliper disc brakes and skid control systems, we know our future developments — and those of the trucking industry — will depend on people like you.
