

Keathley, White Band Win Highest Drive Honors

Keathley Hall and the White Band won plaques for the highest percentage participation in the fall Aggie Blood Drive.

Representatives of the two student groups were presented the awards Tuesday.

The 1973 fall drive set a new record for donations. TAMU students contributed 1,000 units, exceeding the fall, 1972, Aggie Blood Drive by six per cent.

Keathley Hall, housing coeds, won the participation sign over all other campus Residence Hall Association dorms. Keathley President Laurie Koenig of Minot, N.D., was presented the sign by APO Blood Drive Chairman Mike Bunch.

The White Band, commanded by Pat Phillips of Olton, was the top Corps of Cadets outfit. Bunch said the White Band's 92.25 per cent donation record was figured on members of the unit only.

Squadron 12 ran a close second, at 91.66 per cent. Squadron 6 had 89.5 per cent participation; Company H-1, 88 per cent; K-2, 87.8;

L-1, 82; N-1, 82; Squadron 11, 76.8, and Squadron 5, 74.1.

"Corps members donated at a rate of four to one over RHA students," Bunch said, "but the job could not have been done without the support of the entire student body."

He noted that over 2,500 Aggies attempted to donate. An exceptional number of colds caused more than 50 per cent of them to be turned down.

Because of the success of the drive, a coordinated effort of Alpha Phi Omega and Omega Phi Alpha service groups and the Student Senate, students, faculty, staff and former students and their immediate families are covered by the Wadley Blood Bank Blood Security Plan. The Wadley Institute of Molecular Medicine is located in Dallas.
