Aggie Turnovers Aid Longhorn Victory

Texas Wins Sixth Straight SWC Title With 42-13 Thumping

By KEVIN COFFEY
Sports Editor

A&M turnovers, fresh as mom's apple pie and liberally sprinkled with Aggie mistakes, made a fine Thanksgiving lunch for the Texas Longhorns Thursday.

When the smoke cleared from Kyle Field some 54,974 fans were wondering when Texas will relinquish the SWC title.

That record crowd witnessed a frustrating game for the Aggies who were able to move the football everywhere but into the endzone while the Longhorns pounded away, bits at a time, for a 42-13 win.

The victory for the 'Horns left them with a 7-0 conference slate and their sixth straight Southwest Conference championship. The Aggies finished 3-4 in loop play and 5-6 overall.

Texas used ball control to dominate the second half and thwart all hopes of an A&M comeback. The Longhorns backbreaking drive opened the second half. Using 18 plays to cover 80 yards, Texas put the game out of reach when Marty Akins scored his second touchdown of the day. The quarter was over nine minutes old and the Aggies had not had the ball. Texas led 28-7.

The contest developed into a real runaway as Skip Walker fumbled on A&M's first play of the quarter and Texas scored three plays later for a 35-7 lead.

The game started on the wrong foot for the Ags as Alvin Bowers fumbled on the first play from scrimmage. Doug English recovered for the Steers on the A&M 27.

Taking advantage of the Aggie miscue, Texas moved in for the score with Akins doing the honors from 2 yards out. Billy Schott tacked on his first of six extra points for a 17-0 Texas lead.

A&M went back to work and knotted the score at seven with Alvin Bowers TD capping an 83 yard, 12 play drive.

Freshman quarterback David Walker hit Richard Osborne with three clutch passes, each good for a first down.

Texas regained the lead by marching 90 yards with the A&M kickoff in 14 plays. Longhorn Heisman Trophy candidate Roosevelt Leaks spearheaded the drive with plunges of five and six yards. Freshman Raymond Clayborn carried the ball the final five yards and Texas had the lead for keeps 14-7 with 10:02 left in the half.

A&M had a chance to get back in the ball game shortly after Texas capitalized on an interception for a 21-7 lead.

David Walker guided the Aggies from their own 25, fighting Texas defense and the clock.

Ronnie Hubby hauled in what appeared to be a TD pass as he was wide open but he tripped on the 25 after a 39 step gain.

A&M moved to the five when a personal foul penalty and mass confusion kept them from scoring as the time ran out.

The Ags did manage one score in the second half as a Walker to Carl Roaches pass resulted in a pass interference call on Texas. Bubba Bean tallied the final step.

Leaks, who was injured early in the third quarter, led all ball carriers with 87 yards on 16 carries. Akins tallied 75 and three touchdowns.

Bubba Bean etched his name into the Aggie record books as his 24 yards was enough to make him the top sophomore rusher in

A&M history with 701. Texas ranks third on the all-time rushing leaders.

David Walker's passing superb. Often under a big pass rush, Walker hit 11-22 for 164 yards. Richard Osborn hauled in seven aerials in steps.

Much of the passing came on a freak play when er hurriedly hit Osborne on shuffle toss.

Texas goes on to face Oklahoma in the Cotton Bowl on Year's Day with the series Leaks now termed "doubtful."

Emory Bellard and his now take their 22 returning ers and plan for an assault on crown next year.

Floyd Leads Rally In Cage Preview

Mike Floyd tallied 33 points, 25 in the second half, to rally the Aggie White team from a 47-43 deficit to a 92-87 victory over the Maroons last night in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

The game condition scrimmage was the first public showing of the A&M basketball squad. The Aggies open regular season play here Friday at 7:30 p.m.

The Maroons, coached by Norman Ruther, took the early lead on the inside plat of Jerry Mercer who scored 13 of his 15 points in the first half. A balanced attack kept the Maroon unit in the game as senior Charlie Jenkins scored 18 along with JC transfer John Thornton. Ray Roberts added 16 and Webb Williams 14.

Floyd was aided in his efforts by Randy Knowles' 20 points and 18 rebound performance. Freshman Mike Johnson added 16 for the Whites.

The Aggies play their first four games of the season at home before embarking on holiday tournament play.

Alabama, OU Top AP Poll

By HERSHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Crimson Tide of Alabama replaced Ohio State Monday as the nation's top-ranked college football team.

Ohio State's 10-10 tie with Michigan shook things up in The Associated Press' next-to-last regular-season poll. Oklahoma, which had been third, moved into the runner-up position while Ohio State dropped to third and Michigan held onto fourth place.

Ohio State had been No. 1 since the fourth week of the season when Southern California's defending national champions were held to a 7-7 tie by Oklahoma.

Notre Dame and Penn State, like Alabama unbeaten and untied, remained fifth and sixth, respectively, and stayed in contention for the national title, which will be decided following New Year's Day bowl games.

Alabama, which defeated previously unbeaten Louisiana State 21-7 last Thursday, received 36 first-place votes and 1,176 points from The AP panel of 63 sports writers and broadcasters. The Crimson Tide who had been in second place almost all year tallied 1,176 points with 1,095 points going to Oklahoma, which blanked Nebraska 27-0 on Friday and dropped the Cornhuskers from 10th to 13th.

The Top Twenty, with first-place votes in parentheses, season records and total points. Points tabulated on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1:

- | | | |
| 1. Alabama (36) | 10-0-0 | 1,176 |

Help!

The A&M Sports News Office needs some help for the upcoming basketball season. Since the Southwest Conference has adopted the 30-second clock on an experimental basis, four persons are needed to keep charts on the use of the clock. Any students, staff or faculty members who would like to assist in this experiment on a volunteer basis please contact Jim Butler at 845-5725 or in Room 204 in G. Rollie White Coliseum before Friday. The only prerequisite is a thorough knowledge of basketball.
