listen to your college textbooks

It's easy—when you finish with your books, you trade them in for cash! Then turn it into a down stroke on some new stereo gear.

Whether it's enough for a system or just a new LP depends on how many books you've got to sell, what condition they're in, and whether or not there's a need for them nationwide.

Whatever you want to use the money for it will sure beat just letting them lie around collecting dust. So bring your books over to the professional book-buyers at the bookstore now, while your book is worth the most it will ever be.

Wait too long and chances are that all you'll get for your books is someone else's song and dance.

'Pokes Protest Redskin Use of 'Dirty Tricks'

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Coach Tom Landry disclosed Tuesday that the Cowboys have filed a protest with the National Football League office, charging the Washington Redskins with trying to jam quarterback Roger Staubach's signals.

Landry said Washington's defense was yelling "Hut-Hut-Hut" when Staubach was trying to call signals in the 27-7 Cowboy victory Sunday.

"We had six illegal procedure penalties because of it," Landry said. "Our linemen complained and we finally got the officials to warn Washington and they quit."

Landry said, "We protested to the league office because it's illegal to jam quarterback signals."

Landry and defensive line coach Ernie Etautner got so upset over the alleged "dirty tricks" by Washington Coach George Allen they edged onto the field.

In Washington, Allen's reaction was: "Let them protest. That's just ridiculous."

"They're still running illegal motions and clipping and that wasn't called. Dave Robinson was clipped on that kind of play and it wasn't called. Be sure to mention that."

And with those comments, Allen wheeled and left newsmen standing alone.

The Redskins have been having a verbal feud with the Cowboys for the past two years over what Washington claims are illegal crackback blocks on the linebackers by the Dallas man in motion.

Last year, the charges were made against Lance Alworth for his blocks on linebacker Jack Pardee who has since retired to become a Redskins coach.

Cowboy receivers, particularly second-year tight end Gene Fuggitt and rookie tight end Billy Joe DuPree, jumped the snap on several occasions. A 54-yard bomb from Staubach to Bob Hayes on Dallas' second play was called back because the Cowboys were in motion.

Asked if Allen had tried to pull the trick on the Cowboys before, Landry answered, "Well, let's just say he picks his spots."

The Cowboys can clinch the National Conference Eastern Division title Sunday with a victory over St. Louis on the road.

Landry said that fullback Walt Garrison played most of the game against the Redskins with a hair-line fracture of a shoulder.

"It's sore, but Walt will pad it up and probably play against St. Louis," Landry said. "It'll take more than that to keep him out of a championship game."

Landry said that defensive tackle Bob Lilly, who played only briefly against Washington because of a knee injury, should be better and ready to go against the Cardinals.

Rugby Teams End Successful Season

The A&M Rugby Club closed the fall season with its maroon and third teams taking two wins from the Huntsville Rugby Club.

The Maroon team faced a much improved Huntsville team. After a slow start, the Aggies dominated play, winning 32-0. Huntsville's forwards didn't once maintain ball possession, leaving their backs with no opportunity to score.

At the half, the score stood 14-0.

Tom Chaney went in for eight points, while David Esslinger, Karl Mesloh, Bob Flut, Hillard Simmons, Joe Stockton and David Hunt scored four points each.

The third team, consisting of new players, defeated Huntsville's second team, 14-3.

The Rugby Club's spring season will start with the Texas

Rugby Union championships. The Ags are looking forward to making it their fourth consecutive title win.

Swim Team To Choose Girl Fridays

Women who are interested in "spending a little time with the swimming team" will be interviewed Friday.

The women must register in the Dean of Women's Office, (Room 108 in the YMCA building) or at the indoor swimming pool office.

The interview board will be composed of Dean Toby Rives, Coach Dennis Fosdick, Ted Borkis from the Battalion sports staff, swim team co-captains Steve Prentice and Dan Sonnenberg and a class representative from the team.

"Previous knowledge of swim meet operations is not a requirement," said Fosdick. "Only a willingness to spend one evening a week with the team is necessary."

After the "girl Friday's" are chosen, a training session will be held to acquaint the girls with swim meet procedure.
