By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
AUSTIN—The trial of Earl Dean Collins, charged with taking historic documents from the Texas Supreme Court building, was rescheduled Monday for Feb. 2.

Collins, 40, was custodian of the 3rd Court of Civil Appeals here.

A Supreme Court clerk discovered Aug. 8 that files containing 1,853 records were missing from a storage area in a basement room. Most of the records were found behind an air-conditioning unit.

The documents dealt with the period from 1840 to 1892.

National

PINE RIDGE, S. D. — The struggle for tribal control of the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation, site of the 71-day siege of Wounded Knee, moves to the polls Tuesday amid police predictions of possible violence.

Twelve candidates were on the primary election ballot for president of the Oglawa Sioux Tribe, including incumbent Richard Wilson and American Indian Movement leader Russell Means. Means, 33, Qorcupine, S.D., was a leader of the takeover.

He and others are on trial in St. Paul, Minn., for their role in the siege. Wilson, 39, a plumber before winning the head office on the reservation, is an avowed opponent of AIM.

WASHINGTON — Herbert L. Porter, the former Nixon re-election committee official who admitted lying under oath to remain "a team player," was charged with making false statements to the FBI.

The charge carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine. Porter, 35, had been prepared to plead guilty, his lawyer said, but the case was put off, perhaps for a week, by the illness of the judge assigned to the case.

HONOLULU—A statewide gasoline rationing plan similar to one used in Oregon will go into effect in Hawaii Feb. 4.

Acting Gov. George Ariyoshi says drivers with even-numbered license plates can buy fuel on even-numbered days and those with odd-numbered plates can purchase gasoline on the other days.

Service stations will be open Monday through Friday and drivers will be allowed to fill up only if their tanks are at least half-empty.

Ariyoshi said 92 per cent of the state's service station operators have agreed to comply with the voluntary plan.

The state proposal is called "Gasplan." It will be publicized by a $25,000 advertising campaign. The plan was created by the state's energy task force.

WASHINGTON—Oil executives told Congress the energy crisis was not contrived by the petroleum industry but was caused by low natural-gas prices and environmental concern. The executives testified before a Senate subcommittee investigating the severity of the energy crisis. The hearing opened with Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., accusing the oil industry of "cheating the American public."

International

PARIS—The French franc, set loose in a float Saturday, slumped on foreign exchange markets. The price of gold soared a common reaction in times of monetary uncertainty. The United States dollar, meanwhile, rose in value in the European exchanges. It bought 5.35-5.37 francs on the Paris financial market where tourist dollars are traded.

Campus Briefs

Symphonic band auditions

University Symphonic Band audition candidates will meet Wednesday.

Director Joe McMullen said students who signed up earlier should be at the E. V. Adams Band Hall at 12 noon. Auditions for the new TAMU musical organization will begin Thursday.

Rehearsals and activities will begin this semester. Open to any A&M student, the symphonic band is separate from any other TAMU musical group.

Refrigerator rentals

Refrigerators are available for rent through Friday, 3-5 p.m. in the basement of the old health center, says Larry McRoberts, campus projects chairman. A semester rental fee of $31 dollars includes a $10 deposit on damage.

Class rings delivery

Senior students who ordered class rings for delivery on Jan. 22 may pick them up at the ring clerk's desk in the Coke Building.

Carolyn Wells, new Association of Former Students ring clerk, said the shipment arrived early.

Her office will remain open from 8-5 p.m., except during the noon hour, for ring distribution.

Students expecting their class rings may pick them up Monday through Friday, according to Ms. Wells.

Singing cadet openings

Students started auditioning Monday for openings in the Singing Cadets.

Tryouts continue through Friday at the all-male glee club practice hall, 119 G. Rollie White Coliseum. Students should report to Director Robert L. Boone between 2 and 4:30 p.m.

Auditions will be for 10 openings. Working with Boone and pianist-accompanist Mrs. June Biering, each auditioning student is asked to sight read a piece of music and sing a number.

Community support

The Bryan-College Station Chamber of Commerce has presented its annual $1,000 unrestricted educational grant to President Jack K. Williams.

The annual award was begun by the Chamber of Commerce in 1964, according to Mann. He said the award is made to the university in a show of support by the business and professional community in Bryan-College Station for educational activities.

"These funds will be used for projects not covered by state funds," Dr. Williams noted. "We highly appreciate this expression of faith by the business and professional community in our work here at Texas A&M."
