

Intramurals register success in 1973

A&M's Intramural Department completed its most successful season last fall. According to Jim Jeter, Associate Director of the department there was a 20 percent increase in the number of participants in every sport.

There were 4,000 different individuals participating and these participations totaled over 19,000 prior to basketball season last fall. The total for the 1972-73 was only 24,000 for all sports.

New this semester is the Sports Club Association which will combine 21 sports into one group for the purpose of petitioning funds from the Exchange Store.

There is also a reservation system in effect for free recreation in DeWare. Students interested in reserving a court on an hourly basis should phone 845-2624 at least 24 hours in advance of the time that they wish to use the court.

A proposal has been made for the construction of an Intramural Complex which would be located behind Duncan. This complex when finished would include eight lighted softball/football fields. This location would be acceptable due to recommendation that Bonfire be moved off campus.

This semester a standing recreation committee has been created which includes two student senators, two members of the intramural council, Dean of Student Services Dr. John Koldus, Director of Intramurals Athletics Dennis Corrington, Head of Physical Education Dr. Carl Landiss, President of the Handball Club Stan Lowy, Associate Dean of Liberal Arts Dr. Carl McCandless, Dean of Men Dr. Charles Powell and Dean of Women Toby Schriber. This committee will seek the preservation of recreation areas on campus.

The sports that will be offered this spring and the registration cutoff date for each includes horseshoes, closed; table tennis, closed; wrestling, Feb. 2; soccer, Feb. 5; softball, Feb. 5; co-rec softball, Feb. 6; racketball, Feb. 5; track, March 19; swimming, March 26; and free throw contest, Feb. 6.

Other sports will include bicycle races, fencing, weightlifting, archery and canvas ball push.

For the first time this fall A&M has had a champion play-off and the all-University Championships in these sports follows: flag football, Crocker Hall (on campus); volley ball, "Stat Club"; handball, C-2; tennis, "Vet III;" bowling, Sq. 10; cross country, James Eckley; turkey trot (individual) Kyle Heffner; turkey trot, (team) Sq. 9; field goalkicking, Mitch Barker; open racket ball, (singles) Dr. Linus Powell; open handball (singles) Dennis Corrington; and open pocket billiards, Randy Neal.

Notre Dame, UCLA guards prep for Saturday duel

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Tommy Curtis is UCLA's holler guy, yelping encouragement, applauding a basket, pointing a finger at an opponent.

Dwight Clay of Notre Dame accused the peppercorn guard of taunting him during last Saturday's 71-70 victory that ended UCLA's all-time record basketball winning streak at 88 games.

That was at South Bend. The same teams, top-ranked Notre Dame and second-rated UCLA, meet again Saturday at Pauley Pavilion.

"If this had been a playground game, I'd have busted his head," Clay said of Curtis' actions last Saturday.

Curtis said he was puzzled by Clay's remarks.

"I was trying to figure out what was happening. What he said was amazing.

"This Dwight Clay thing is being taken in the wrong perspective. I'm out there to have fun. Don't take basketball so seriously; it's not big business."

"I'm not trying to hurt somebody," Curtis said. "When the entire thing is in the proper perspective, heated remarks are so pathetic.

"Usually, when a guy misses a shot, I'm just clapping as if to say, 'Hey man, it's just a game. Have fun. Get back on the floor and have fun.'"

"But I guess most guys get caught up in the politics, in the pep rallies."

Coach John Wooden of UCLA said he has advised Curtis against making gestures at opponents.

"I wish he wouldn't," said Wooden. "Taunting? I don't know. I think it's his personality."

Curtis said that the Bruins won't seek revenge but will be trying to atone for mistakes made at South Bend, when they blew an 11-point lead in the last 3 minutes, 20 seconds.

"I'm a very self-critical person, and I think you must be to attain what you want in life. I know I'm not only speaking individually, but from a team standpoint. We want to play the very best possible and we don't feel we did.

"They have a fine ball club and played a very fine ball game and won. But we're continuing the season. We didn't fall off the edge of the world. The sun came up the next day and we enjoyed it."

Super Bowl viewing upped

NEW YORK (AP) — Super Bowl VIII fared slightly better among television viewers than Super Bowl VII, the Columbia Broadcasting System claimed Wednesday.

According to figures based on Nielsen ratings, fewer people were using their television sets this year than last, but more of those who were using them had them tuned to the Super Bowl.

Broadcasting Company televised the Super Bowl, one per cent more of the homes that had TV's had them switched to the game, but the share was two per cent lower.

Pre-game activities this year received a 28.0 rating and a 60 per cent share, but interest dropped when it came to the post-game interviews. The percentages for the post mortem were 27.4 and 50.

Of the 66.2 million American homes that have televisions, 41.7 per cent were focused on the National Football League championship game on Jan. 13 in which the Miami Dolphins romped over the Minnesota Vikings 24-7.

And of all of the televisions that were on, 74 per cent had the dial set on CBS. That left the two other major networks and the independent stations to share the other 26 per cent of the Sunday afternoon audience.

Last year, when the National

Judo Club holds classes

The TAMU Judo Club and Gibbs Dibrell, instructor, will be instructing classes sponsored by the Bryan Community Education Program. Christine Runge, a fifth degree brown belt, and other women instructors from the A&M club will supervise fourth, fifth and sixth graders.

The classes will be held in the Fannin Elementary School Gymnasium on Saturday mornings. Dibrell and the coeds have spent about two months visiting local schools and giving demonstrations.

Judo is a sport developed from a self defense form. It is recognized by the AAU and events are held in the Olympics.

About 400 children are expected to turn out for the program. Additional coeds are needed to help supervise. Anyone interested is asked to call Dibrell after 7 at 846-6439.
