'Good sex life results of good relationship'

By SALLY HAMILTON
Staff Writer

God's perspective of sex came to TAMU Friday night as Josh McDowell, a traveling representative of the Campus Crusade for Christ, spoke on that subject to an enthusiastic three-quarter capacity crowd at University Center Auditorium.

"The main purpose of sex, according to the Bible, is a unity factor," said McDowell, "for a man and woman to come together in oneness."
"Sex involves all that you are as an individual," McDowell said, "and I believe that for a maximum relationship in maximum love, and maximum sex there needs to be a oneness in three dimensions."

The three dimensions that McDowell spoke of were the physical, the psychological, and that Jesus talked and wrote about... the spiritual," said McDowell. "A good sex life seldom develops into a good relationship," said McDowell, "a good marriage will produce a fantastic sex life. You see, a sex life is more the result of relationship and not the cause of it."

Campus Briefs

Radio organization

Student Government Radio will organize for this semester Wednesday night at 8:30 in the Mid-west Video studios. Policy changes will be implemented and all interested in working are urged to come.

Room changes

Male students make room changes this week to take up slack from mid-year departures.

Housing manager Allan Madley said room changes this week will complete the spring semester shuffle.

On Thursday and Friday, students wishing to change halls will report at the Housing Office. Vacancies will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Fee slips must be presented and additional fees paid, if owed, before keys will be issued.

Numbered cards will be given at the office at 9 p. m. Wednesday to prevent students spending the night in line. Students getting new room assignments will be issued room change slips to be processed through resident advisors and counselors.

Menu complaints

The Menu board will hear complaints and suggestions on Jan. 30 in Sbsa and Jan. 31 in Krueger-Dunn.

Students who are unable to attend should contact their student representatives and give them their opinions. The representatives may be reached through the Office of the Vice-President for Student Services by calling 845-3329. The board will meet with Col. Fred Dollar, director of food services, said Ed Davis, assistant director of management services. Any request within economic reason will be considered, according to Davis.

Stamp auction

Area stamp collectors will gather Tuesday night to inspect lots which will be sold at the club's monthly auction Feb. 2.

The club which meets each Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in Room 1024 of the new chemistry wing boasts more than 30 members whose collection interests range from beginning to advanced specialization.

The monthly auctions are held at 10:30 a. m. in the same location as the weekly meetings. All persons interested in stamp collecting are invited to attend both the auction and the weekly meetings.

New women students' orientation

An orientation program for women students who transferred to TAMU this semester is scheduled for 8:30 p. m. Tuesday in Room 301 of the Rudder Tower, announced Dr. Patricia Self, women's counselor.

"The purpose of this program is to acquaint these students to A&M and its way of life and the services that it has to offer," explained Dr. Self.

"We hope that all women will join us for this program and give us the opportunity to get better acquainted," she said.

Inquiries should be directed to Dr. Self in the dean of women's office.

Book exchange shuts down Thursday

Checks and unsold books may be picked up from the Student Book Exchange today between 8 and 5 in Room B and E of the Student Programs Office in the Memorial Student Center. The last day for picking up books and checks is Thursday from 12:30 to 4:30 p. m. Students must bring receipts in order to pick up their books and checks.

Talent show to headline campus acts

Auditions for the Aggieband will be Feb. 18, 19 and 20 in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom.

At least one member of each act must be a student faculty member or staff member. Sign-up deadline is Feb. 15.

Cash prizes will be awarded to the top acts on the night of the show, March 30, to be held in Rudder Auditorium. Admission is required for the Sophomore class sponsored show. Interested people call Mike Alford at 845-1779.

SCONA

Knee. Writing and law are the fields where Kunstler has made his most significant contributions, but writing came first. In 1941, before graduating from Yale he published a book of poetry written by himself and a schoolmate entitled "Our Pleasant Vices." He has since written seven books. Three are available in the University library: "Deep in My Heart," 1966; "Beyond a Reasonable Doubt," 1961; and "The Law of Accidents," 1950.
