

SMU holds off Aggies

Terrell paces Mustangs' 70-68 victory

By TED BORISKIE
Assistant Sports Editor

The everpresent Ira Terrell and hot shooting John Sagehorn guided the SMU Mustangs to a 70-68 win over the Texas Aggies Tuesday night in Dallas' Moody Coliseum.

Terrell ended the game with 15 points and 12 rebounds and blocked numerous shots while Sagehorn scored 14 points, most of them coming from 20 feet or more away.

The Mustangs are the hottest team in the conference, winning three straight from the league's three top ballclubs. A week ago on the same court, SMU handed Texas Tech its first conference loss of the season in a 73-71 squeaker and then traveled to Austin Saturday to defeat the Texas Longhorns, 74-72, on their home court.

The win over A&M marks the third straight win by two points, all in the same general scoring area.

A seesaw battle throughout, SMU never led by more than seven, with that stretch, 49-42, coming early in the second half. Although never able to pull away, the Mustangs led for practically the entire contest with A&M's only dominance being of short duration and coming towards the end of the game. But senior Pony guard Zack Thiel hit two crucial baskets to put SMU back on top to stay.

Thiel had a chance to put the game out of reach but missed the first shot of a one-and-one with 18 seconds remaining with SMU holding a 70-68 lead.

Unable to get the ball inside, the Aggies fed the ball to Randy Knowles who took a 20-foot jumper that bounded off the rim. Getting his own rebound, Knowles took a second shot from just a few feet away but with the mob scene under the basket was unable to make good on the follow-up. SMU's 6-10 Jeff Cummings grabbed the rebound, his only one for the night, and hugged onto the ball as time ran out.

Feeling that Knowles may have been fouled amid all the contact surrounding his final shot, the entire Aggie bench filed out onto the court to protest the no-call, leaving the game's end a very crowded and confused court and referee Shorty Lawson an irked and unhappy man.

"They gave us the outside shot," said coach Shelby Metcalf of the game's final seconds, "and I'd just as soon Randy (Knowles) took it as anyone. Overall I can't fault our guys' play."

Terrell was six of seven from the field and three for three from the line and seemed unstoppable as he proved to be a thorn in the Aggies' side all night long.

Knowles was the leading scorer for the Aggies with 17 points while Jerry Mercer contributed 15 and John Thornton and Cedric Joseph pumped in 12 each.

Mercer was the game's leading rebounder with 16 while Joseph had 12 and Thornton pulled in eight.

The Aggies shot 44.8 percent from the field and 80 percent from the free throw line while the Mustangs had a 47.8 field goal percentage and hit 50 percent from the line.

Perhaps symbolic of SMU's inability to pull away from the Aggies was the action that occurred at the end of the first half. Thornton fouled SMU forward Jimmy Murphy with five seconds left. Murphy sank both ends of the one-and-one and the Aggies used up four seconds getting the ball to midcourt. Knowles took a desperation shot from 50 feet away and, to the amazement of everyone but himself, the ball swished through the bucket as the buzzer sounded.

League leading Texas Tech visits A&M Saturday for a 7:30 p.m. contest in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

TCU upsets Texas, 72-71

Texas Tech, Rice notch wins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
FORT WORTH — Texas Christian reserve forward Johnny Blakney, who is not known for his free throw accuracy, hit from the charity line in overtime Tuesday to hand Texas a Southwest Conference upset 72-71.

Blakney's pair of free throws put TCU ahead to stay at 72-69 with 23 seconds left in the overtime period.

A layup by Longhorn Larry Robinson nine seconds later put the last Texas points on the board.

Defensive player Blakney hit only 42 per cent of his free throws for the season going into the game.

The Horned Frogs didn't get a chance at the free throw line during regulation play, but hit every time on four tries in overtime.

TCU center Wayne Wayman paced the Frogs with 16 points and 14 rebounds, including two free throws in the overtime period.

Robinson was the game's leading scorer with 29 points.

The loss dropped Texas to a 6-3 slate in conference play, two games back of the pace-setting Texas Tech. Texas is 7-14 for the year.

TCU pushed their conference slate to 2-6 with the victory, 8-11 for the year.

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech's Rick Bullock poured in 25 points and grabbed 21 rebounds as the Raiders fought back a furious last half rally by the Arkansas Razorbacks to post an 89-83 victory here Tuesday.

The Razorbacks pulled within two points, 79-77, with just more than three minutes to go, but the Raiders pulled away to win the game.

At halftime Tech had held a commanding 49-38 lead over the Arkansas roundballers.

Dean Tolson pumped in 21 points to lead the Arkansas assault.

The victory gives Texas Tech, the defending Southwest Conference champion, a conference record of 8-1 and sole possession of the lead in this season's race. Texas lost to TCU 72-71 in overtime Tuesday night. The Raiders are 15-5 for the season.

Arkansas dipped to a 3-6 conference slate with the loss and a 7-14 season record.

Bullock's 21 rebounds tied the Texas Tech record for most rebounds in a Southwest Conference game. Bob Glovers pulled down 21 against Baylor in 1966 to set the mark.

HOUSTON — Junior Danny Carroll scored 22 points and grabbed 19 rebounds to lead the upstart Rice Owls to an 83-76 Southwest Conference basketball victory over the Baylor Bears Tuesday night.

The Owls, picked last in SWC pre-season basketball polls, jumped to a big lead in the first half and led 48-34 at intermission.

The victory gave the Owls a 4-5 record in the SWC race and 10-12 for the season. Baylor dropped to 4-5 in the SWC and 11-9 for the season.

Rice, coming off a disappointing 106-81 loss to Arkansas in its last game, maintained a 20-point lead through most of the second half but Baylor cut it to the final margin with a surge during the final four minutes.

Scott Fisher scored 16 points and Charles Daniels added 15 in a substitute role for the Owls. Steve Dallas scored 16 points to lead Baylor while Lee Griffin added 13 and Mark Wattier scored 11.

Baylor star Charles McKinney scored only six points, all in the first half, and was used sparingly in the second half.
