

Arciniega, Thornton lead Ags over Baylor

By KEVIN COFFEY

Joe Arciniega and John Thornton tossed in season high point totals to lead the Texas Aggies to a 94-72 Southwest Conference basketball win over Baylor last night.

Thornton scored 31 points and pulled in 17 rebounds as the Ags avenged an earlier defeat by the Bears in Waco.

Arciniega thrilled the 3,740 fans by scoring four points in his final appearance before the home crowd.

Randy Knowles ignited the Ags in the second half, hitting eight of his 25 points in the opening five minutes of the final period. Baylor managed to keep close until Knowles' barrage that put A&M on top 63-46.

The Bears trailed 45-39 at halftime as A&M controlled the inside game. BU's big men, devastating in the previous Baylor win, were totally shutout by Jerry Mercer, Cedric Joseph, Knowles and Thornton.

A&M started the game in a 1-2-2 zone defense but Baylor's Tom Corley hit eight quick points from his guard spot. Coach Shelby Metcalf then switched the Ags into an aggressive man to man.

Thornton matched up with the Bears' high scoring forward Charlie McKinney and shut him out completely. Averaging over 18 points per game, the burly Baylor senior was held to nine points and nine rebounds.

Gary McGuire's 25 points, 17 rebound performance in Waco must have irked the Ags as the freshman post man was held to 10 points and just two rebounds.

Joseph blocked three shots in the first half to assist in shutting down the BU inside game.

A&M totally dominated the backboards the first 20 minutes, handing Baylor a 29-11 pounding. However, 12 turnovers in that initial period kept the Ags from pulling away earlier. The Aggies finished with a 59-31 rebound advantage. Joseph hauled in 11, Knowles 10 to team with Thornton's 17.

Knowles completely frustrated Corley. Sporting a four inch height advantage, Knowles inside to score almost at will.

Thornton hit 15 foot jump shots from the corner with amazing regularity. The junior college transfer's final surge put A&M on top 86-66 with 2:38 remaining.

It seemed only fitting that Arciniega should score A&M's final home points of the season. Taking two great passes from fellow senior Charlie Jenkins, Arciniega cashed in on a lay-up and 30 foot bomb for the finishing blows.

James Weaver led the Baylor attack with 16 points. Mike Luce added 13 and Gary McGuire 10 for the Bears.

Baylor is now 12-12 on the season, 5-8 in conference action.

BU assistant coach Jim Haller said emotions were the big difference in the previous game with the Bears.

"A&M was up and really got after it," Haller said. "When the Aggies get after it there isn't a team in the conference that can stay with them physically."

Haller was also quick to praise Thornton. "He played as good a game tonight as I've ever seen in this conference," he said.

Thornton credited the improvement of his outside shooting for his impressive scoring of late. "I've gained more confidence and I feel more comfortable taking the longer shots now," said Thornton.

"In junior college I played post and it took me a little while to get used to being a forward."

Thornton said that the Aggie strategy in defending McKinney was to give him the outside shot and keep the burly Bear off the boards. "He just wouldn't take the 15 footer and everybody did a good job of keeping him off the boards," Thornton said.

Senior C. W. Guthrie tallied two points in his farewell appearance for the Aggies. Mercer added 12, Joseph six, with Mike Floyd, Ray Roberts and Webb Williams four points each. Mike Johnson hit two points to round out the Aggie scoring.

UT, Tech win; SWC still tied

By The Associated Press

AUSTIN — Texas remained in a tie with Texas Tech for the Southwest Conference basketball lead Tuesday night with a thorough 99-82 drubbing of Arkansas behind Larry Robinson's 26 points.

Senior guard Harry Larrabee chipped in 22 points to aid the Longhorn cause. Texas is now 10-3 and travels to Waco Saturday night to meet Baylor in the season finale.

Arkansas led early in the game 26-18 but Dan Krueger's jump shot put Texas ahead to stay 32-31.

Texas held at 46-37 halftime lead. The "Horns increased the margin to 73-56 only to have the Razorbacks fight back with eight unanswered points.

Arkansas' Ricky Medlock kept the Razorbacks in the game, hitting 18 of his 26 points in the first half. Dean Tolson chipped in 21 points for the losers, who are now 5-8 in SWC play.

Texas hit 47 of 84 field shots for 56 per cent while Arkansas connected on 36 of 82 shots for 43.9 per cent.

The Longhorns shot 83 per cent from the foul line while Arkansas managed only 71 per cent.

Arkansas outrebounded Texas 51-37 but was guilty of 20 turnovers to Texas' eight.

FORT WORTH — Southwest Conference co-leader Texas Tech paced by Rick Bullock's 41 points defeated Texas Christian 77-66 here Tuesday night.

Bullock scored 21 points in the first half to stake the Raiders to a narrow 37-36 intermission lead. However, Tech slowly pulled away in the second half, twice leading by as much as 15 points.

The outcome leaves the Red

Raiders 10-3 in SWC action and sets the stage for a showdown against SMU in Lubbock Saturday afternoon.

Ted Jones paced TCU with 21 points while Jeff Wright added 14. Grady Newton, with 10, was the only other Tech player in double figures.

DALLAS — Ira Terrell scored 22 points Tuesday night to lead Southern Methodist to an 89-79 victory over Rice, the Mustangs' seventh Southwest Conference basketball triumph in a row.

The Mustangs, winning their ninth game in 10 decisions, ran their SWC record to 9-4, one game behind league-leading Texas and Texas Tech with one game left. Rice fell to a 4-9 league mark.

Both team placed five men in double figures. Following Terrell for SMU were Rusty Bourquin with 16 points and Jimmy Murphy with 12. Scott Fisher led Rice with 16 points, followed by Charles Daniels with 14.

SMU went from a one-point deficit to an 11-point lead midway in the first half, holding Rice without a bucket from 10:40 to 6:18 left in the half.

After a 45-34 halftime lead, the Mustangs coasted in the second half.
