

Frustrated lover coached by Bogart

'Play It Again, Sam' romantic comedy, last for Eston

By BRAD ELLIS
Staff Writer

Shy, frustrated lover, Allan Felix gets his coaching from the accomplished master of any situation and American folk hero, Humphrey Bogart, in the Aggie Players' performance of "Play It Again, Sam."

This romantic comedy, written by Woody Allen, is the finale production for director C. K. Eston, who will retire in August from his position as Chairman of the Theater Arts Section, under the English Dept.

Allan Felix (Carl Childress) is a film critic for "Film Quarterly" and sees himself as a sensitive artist who will one day do something really meaningful in cinema or literature. His big problem is his belief that women find him unattractive, which inhibition is destroying his already foundering love life.

Into this situation comes Bogart (Harry Gooding) as an apparition perceived only by Felix and the apparition of Felix's wife. Prodding his protege in typical Bogart fashion, the master gets Felix into a fine experience which boosts the young jerk's self

DPC opens remote facility in 30-C Zachry

The Data Processing Center recently opened a new remote computing center, the Zachry Computing Center, or ZCC, located in room 30-C of the Zachry Engineering Center.

The ZCC is equipped with an IBM 3780 card reader and printer which is connected via telephone line to the IBM 360/65, located at the Data Processing Center. The 3780 reads or prints at a rate of 300 cards or lines per minute. It does not do both simultaneously. The ZCC also contains (4) key-punch machines, and a Datel APL terminal.

The hours of operation are Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, 8 to 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 to 5 p.m. On Tuesdays and Thursdays the hours are 8 to 9:15 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. After two weeks of training operators, the schedule will change to 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The space for the ZCC has been provided by the Electrical Engineering department. Therefore, all users should strive to keep the ZCC in its present condition. The ZCC is one of three remote centers operated by the DPC, the other two are the TCC, Teague Computing Center, and the RCC, Remote Computing Center. The addition of the ZCC will release some of the congestion at the other remote centers, as well as, be more accommodating for those users located in and around the Zachry Center.

Felix's best friend Dick (Tom Bond) flashes through the show on his way to or from innumerable business engagements leaving his wife Linda (Karen Miller) to help their forlorn friend through his readjustment to the swinging life of an eligible bachelor.

In a series of appearances, some fantasies, some real, the girls in his affairs illustrate Felix's progression towards a more natural and workable relationship with a woman. They begin with his wife Nancy (Martha McKemie) who just left him, and end with a new neighbor and kindred soul Barbara (Janice Smith). The spectrum ranges from an absurdly flighty fling with a go go dancer (Nancy Gandy) to a tragically abortive encounter with a spaced-out intellectual art freak (Debbie Hodges).

Felix imagines himself awakening desire in a "frigid" woman, his "Dream Sharon" (Jennifer Rick), only to bungle his blind date with the real Sharon (Pamela Weems). He recalls female personification of pure sex, Vanessa (Cynthia Vinson), and a woman who receives his adoration like an iceberg, Jeana (Cheri Lindquist).

"Play It Again, Sam" is scheduled to open April 29 in the University Center Theater for a six-night run of performances.

Book display truck scheduled Friday

Professors with spare time Friday might want to truck over to Booktruck, a book display unit of College Marketing Group, Inc.

The truck, sponsored by the Bookstore, will be at the University Center from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. The Booktruck brings sample textbooks to college professors; the four Booktrucks visit over 400 campuses in a year.

A remodeled van does not sell the books in either is it in competing any bookstores, since they must order the books from university bookstores.

Booktruck carries 131 publishers and approximately 3,000 books.
