Ags dominate triangular meet

Yemme, McGuire lead tracksters past SMU, TCU

Track fans were treated to a Southwest Conference rarity, an Aggie win in the mile run, as A&M won a triangular meet with SMU and TCU Saturday on Kyle Field.

A&M found no real contest in the team competition as the Aggies ran up a whopping total of 96 points to easily outdistance SMU's 45 and the Horned Frogs' 28.

There were plenty of contests in the individual events as upsets and season bests seemed to rule the day.

The biggest surprise of the meet had to be Jacob Yemme's win in the mile. The Aggie sophomore from Ghana entered the meet with a best personal time of 4:25.1 and was expected to be no more than a slight bother to SMU miler Jeff Dixon. Yemme started back of the pack and stayed in eighth place in the nine-man field while A&M's Paul Goodman took the lead to provide the pace. Dixon took the lead on the third lap and opened it up at the gun to stretch to a 12-yard lead over Yemme. Down the backstretch it looked as if it would be Dixon's race all the way home but Yemme began to narrow the distance between the two going in to the turn. Coming down home stretch, Yemme picked up eight yards and caught the Mustang about 15 yards from the finish. Dixon put on a final burst of speed to try and hold off Yemme but the Aggie lunged at the tape to take first. Yemme's time was 4:14.43 while Dixon was clocked at 4:14.49. A&M's Pat Bradley and Danny Jones finished third and fourth, respectively, as the much-improved Jones ran one of the best miles of his career.

Phil McGuire was a pleasant surprise in the high jump, clearing 6-10 to take first in an Aggie sweep of the event. A crowd gathered as he went after a school record and set the bar at the mystical 7-foot mark but he could not quite come up with the required leap. The win was a personal triumph for McGuire as it proved to be his finest effort since a 6-10½ mark two years ago as a freshman. McGuire hurt his ankle the fall of his sophomore year and was hindered all last season. He has been jumping well this year and it appears he has finally completed the long comeback from injury.

Shifton Baker was the most prolific Aggie scorer, finishing second in three events and third in another. The freshman sensation from Elgin cleared 6-2½ in his first attempt of the year at the high jump to take second and was also runner-up in the long jump (21-10) and the 120-yard high hurdles (15.0). He has done much better times than his 55.1 third-place finish in the 440-yard intermediate hurdles but he was undoubtedly tiring from the long day of work.

Other Aggie winners include: Tom Owen in the long jump (22-6½), Scottie Jones in the 120-yard high hurdles (14.4), Tim Brown in the discus (140-5), Brad Blair in the pole vault (15-0) and Charles Dawson in the 100 (9.7). SMU and TCU will both be back Saturday to compete in the College Station Relays along with A&M, Houston, Baylor and Lamar University.

Some of the top prep athletes in the state will also be competing in the high school division of the meet Saturday.

Intramural office sponsors charity basketball game

The Intramural Office and the Seniors of 1974 have decided to co-sponsor a charity basketball game between civilian and corps seniors. Four A&M seniors from the basketball squad, C. W. Guthrie, Joe Arciniega, Randy Knowles and Charles Jenkins will coach the teams.

Donations of 50 cents will be asked to view the game. The money will go to Campus Chest for campus charity use.

The Corps and civilians will be competing for the highest amount in donations as well as on the court.

All seniors, on or off-campus, will be able to try-out and meet their coaches on Wednesday and Thursday of this week at 7:00 p. m. The corps will try-out in G. Rollie White and civilians will try-out in DeWare Fieldhouse. All tryees should wear an old T-shirt which may be written on.

To be eligible all seniors must have 95 hours or their Senior Boots and cannot have graduated. The game which should, in future years, produce as much a rivalry as the current "Elephant Bowl," will be played on the main floor of G. Rollie White at a date as yet unannounced.
