UT gains support

AUSTIN (AP)—Twenty-one legislators urged University of Texas regents Thursday to rescind their decision to end guaranteed funding for the Daily Texan and student government at UT-Austin.

In a letter, the lawmakers said they could not force a change in the decision "but we can assure you that it will not be forgotten by us as legislators, or as individuals."

Student government and the Texan, the school newspaper, now receive part of a mandatory students services fee. The regents voted unanimously last Friday to let each student decide whether he wants to contribute. The Texan is distributed in special bins without additional cost to students.

"The action taken on March 15, 1974, can only be interpreted as an attempt to silence criticism that the Texan and the student government have directed at you. This heavy-handed response represents a violation of freedom of expression that is inimical to the concept of academic excellence," the legislators said.

Regents say the decision resulted from a decline in total revenue from the services fee because of a new state law requiring lower fees for part-time students and graduate students.

Final selection of lawyer due in April

Lawyer services will soon be available to students.

Presently 18 applicants are being interviewed by Dr. John Koldus, vice president of student services, and four students. Koldus said they would present the top four or five to the Advisory Committee for questioning.

Koldus said a decision would be made soon after April 2.

Students interviewing possible student lawyers are Student Government President Randy Ross, External Affairs Chairman Barb Sears, Treasurer David White and Gwen Flint.

The Church.. For a Fuller Life.. For You..

Was "Try Again" really the name of the boat? Or did some joker paint those words on the old hull after the wreck? Either way the irony wasn't wasted.

Lots of people used to sail through life confidently and contentedly. Today they aren't so sure they're on the right course.

There are some who think it's only a matter of time before our whole civilization runs aground.

Christianity has often been called "the religion of another chance." Yes, for Christ teaches that we can rise out of our failures through God's forgiveness and power.

Millions today are rediscovering Christian precepts. It is a new generation which will soon be sailing toward a Christian destiny.

Weekend planned for TAMU women

K'FH + O is not a formula for chemical interaction; it is a formula to bring off campus women into contact with women living in residence halls.

"The name means 'Krueger, Keathley, Fowler, Hughes plus off-campus,'" said Norine Harris, a coordinator for the women's weekend, April 5 and 6.

Activities that Friday will consist of speeches on all aspects of women's careers. "We are looking for a major political figure to be the main speaker," said Harris. "There will be about thirty speakers for the girls to listen to."

Friday noon there will be a "Dine-In" in Sbis Dining Hall for all women involved. Those not on a board plan will be required to pay.

Friday night the women's dorms will provide buses from dorms and apartments to the Lakeview Club for a MSC dance.

Saturday activities will consist of a carnival during the day and a street dance at night. A Continental-style breakfast will be served to those involved in the carnival.

The carnival will have booths set up by living areas and organizations. Fortune telling, pie throwing and kissing booths are being discussed.

"One wing of Krueger is getting pictures of pros for a dart throw," said Harris.

Details for K'FH+O, the first serious attempt to bring dorm and off campus women together, are still being worked on.

Agriculture seminar

The sixth speaker for a series of 12 spring semester "Energy for Agriculture" seminars here will be Dr. Harold F. Breimyer of the University of Missouri.

Breimyer, who was named Perry Foundation Professor of Agricultural Economics in 1973, will talk on the "Impact of Energy Crisis on Rural Development." Program time is 3 p.m. Monday in Room 226 of the university library.
