Are we to concern ourselves only with picking up broken pieces, or do we also have a responsibility to prevent the breaking?

WHY WAIT UNTIL YOU BREAK BEFORE ESTABLISHING OR STRENGTHENING YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD? BEGIN NOW WHILE THE PIECES ARE ALL TOGETHER YET! OF COURSE, IF YOU'VE FALLEN TO PIECES ALREADY, NOW IS A GOOD TIME TO START PUTTING THEM BACK TOGETHER. FOR THAT MATTER, BE WITH US SUNDAY. WE'D BE THRILLED TO HAVE YOU WITH US.

Experience evident at Ag spring training

By TED BORISKIE

One might catch Emory Bellard smiling a lot these days. It could be because for the first time since assuming the head football coaching job at A&M he has a lot to smile about.

Of the 102 candidates who reported for spring football drills yesterday, Bellard could gaze across Kyle Field and pick out 43 returning lettermen, a privilege he has never been afforded since reporting here at the end of 1971.

Only six lettermen are lost from last year's squad. Safety Larry Ellis, tackle Bud Trammell, quarterback Tim Trimmier, center Darrell Taliaferro and guard Mike Bruton have all played out their eligibility while fullback Alvin Bowers has been dropped from the squad for disciplinary reasons.

Bowers is the only starter lost from the offense while the starting defensive unit returns intact.

"We have a lot of work to do," said Bellard, "but we're far ahead of any other starting point we've had here. The players are in good physical condition; they're in a good frame of mind and they're 40 per cent more knowledgeable than a year ago."

Bellard said there would be no scrimmage Saturday as previously announced.

"We'll work on fundamentals this week," he said, "and we'll scrimmage every Saturday after this one."

Two lettermen, linebacker Ed Simonini and safety Al Thurmond, were absent from workouts yesterday. Simonini is nursing a sprained ankle and a dislocated elbow while Thurmond is a member of Aggie baseball team. Simonini is expected to be able to return to practice before the Maroon-White game April 27.

"We have the right people in the right positions," said Bellard, "because they've been there a year or two so we don't have to waste time placing personnel. We can work on a lot of things." Quarterback will be attracting a lot of attention this spring as five quality candidates are vying for the job. Returning are David Walker and Mike Jay, who directed last year's attack, and David Shipman, injured last season. New faces are transfer Kent Ballard and Carl Menger, who enrolled in A&M in January and will be playing as a freshman in the fall. All made all-state while in high school and any could conceivably be taking the snap on the first series of downs in the fall.

Carl Roaches, who starred the past two years as a split end and kickoff return specialist, will be given a shot at halfback, the position he played in high school, where he gained over 2,000 yards as a senior at Houston Smiley.

By positions, the lettermen returning next fall include:
