Hearst kidnapping involves robbery, trial, pictures

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) Donald D. DeFreeze, the alleged mastermind of the terrorist Symbionese Liberation Army, was named by the FBI Tuesday as the mystery man who led heiress Patricia Hearst and three other women in a violent bank robbery.

Police said the previously unidentified man shot and wounded two passers-by as he fled the bank with his band of female followers.

A federal arrest warrant said DeFreeze, an escaped convict who took the name "Cinque" after an African chief, was being sought for federal bank robbery. Bail was set at $500,000.

A police investigator said Tuesday the robbery may have been staged to show off Miss Hearst as a "converted" member of the SLA.

"We are discussing the possibility very thoroughly that this was a staged job to show off Patty Hearst as a member of their ranks," said Police Capt. Mortimer McInerney.

A federal warrant issued Monday night identified Miss Hearst, 20, as a carbine-carrying member of a heavily armed gang that robbed $10,960 from the Hibernia Bank's Sunset District branch Monday and shot two passers-by.

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Picture posters of Patricia Hearst holding a machine gun, with the words "We love you Tania," mysteriously appeared on the University of California's Berkeley campus Monday—but by Tuesday they were all gone.

The large posters printed on yellow paper contained no indication of their origin and no source for them has been revealed since they first appeared in east Oakland last week.

The photograph was a reproduction of the color picture sent to Miss Hearst's parents April 3 along with a taped message that the 20-year-old newspaper heiress would "stay and fight" alongside the terrorists that kidnaped her Feb. 4 from a Berkeley apartment.

A newspaper, the "Berkeley Barb," reprinted the picture on its front page last week, but a spokesman for the paper said Tuesday he had no idea of the source of the posters or the reason for their distribution.

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Two alleged Symbionese Liberation Army "soldiers" pleaded innocent Tuesday to the ambush murder of Oakland school Supt. Marcus Foster Nov. 6.

Joseph Remiro, 27, and Russell Little, 24, also pleaded innocent to the attempted murder of Foster's aide, Robert Blackburn.

Foster and Blackburn were shot with a burst of cyanide bullets outside the city's school administration building.

The two men have been called SLA "soldiers" in communiques issued by the terrorist group which claims responsibility for slaying Foster and kidnaping newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst from her Berkeley apartment Feb. 4.

Superior Court Judge William J. McGuinness continued the case until April 30 when he will rule on a defense motion for a change of venue and bail.

James Jenner, a public defender representing Little, told the court that the venue motion will be based on what he regards as continuing prejudicial pretrial publicity.

Jenner and Remiro's attorney, Edward S. Merrill, argued for bail on grounds that the slaying occurred last year before the death penalty was reinstated in California.

The state Supreme Court ruled last week that bail should be available to all defendants except those charged with capital crimes.

Campus Briefs

Preregistration

Students will begin preregistration activities for the 1974 Fall Semester on April 29, announced TAMU Registrar R. A. Lacey.

The preregistration period will extend from the 29th to May 3, and will be conducted from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. during the five-day preregistration week, Lacey said.

Only those students who are currently enrolled for the 1974 Spring Semester at TAMU will be eligible for preregistration. Each student, graduate and undergraduate, will report to the head of his major department or authorized representative to secure registration card packets.

Lacey noted that students are advised to utilize Fall course schedules to work out a trial schedule before preregistration, avoiding time conflicts when final class schedules are made.

Vintage movie

Texas A&M's all-time favorite movie, "We've Never Been Licked," will show twice Friday for Parents' Weekend visitors.

Show times for the vintage movie with a World War II theme will be 7 and 9 p.m. It will be shown in the Rudder Center Theater by the Memorial Student Center Travel Committee.

Admission of $1 per person will go into the committee's Overseas Travel Loan Fund, according to Chairman Pat Wilkinson.

"We've Never Been Licked" was filmed at Texas A&M in the early 1940s. It is plotted around the activities of students played by Robert Mitchum and Noah Beery Jr. Anne Gwynn and Martha O'Driscoll appears as prof's daughters, then the only young ladies found on campus.

Chemistry student

Harry Schroeder of College Station was named the outstanding chemistry student Tuesday in an awards banquet honoring five seniors.

Schroeder received the Chemistry Department's Outstanding

Undergraduate Award. Also cited for top academic performance and extracurricular activities were Thomas Lowe of Irving; Dennis Moltz, Odessa; Homer Pearce, Abilene, and Paula Crane, Lissie.

Piper Professor

Dr. George F. Carter, distinguished professor of geography, has been named a Piper Professor of 1974. The designation by the Minnie Stevens Piper Foundation of San Antonio includes a $1,000 honorarium.

Carter has gained nationwide attention in recent years concerning his theories about the antiquity of man in America. He contends man first came to North America about 100,000 years ago, while most of his colleagues believe the date is between 12,000 and 25,000 years. Support, however, is being found for dates more nearly coinciding with the TAMU professor's concept.

The Minnie Stevens Piper Foundation was founded in 1950 to support charitable, literary, scientific or educational undertakings in Texas. It established the Piper Professor awards in 1958 "to bring added recognition to outstanding achievement in the teaching profession in colleges and universities." Ten such awards are given each year.
