

Bellard sets teams for spring finale

The Texas Aggies wind up spring football training with their annual Maroon-White game at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Kyle Field.

It won't actually be Maroon vs. White, however. All of the offense will be in White and all of the defense will be in Maroon.

The first half of the game will pitting the first teams against the second. Then, the second units will take on the rest of the squad the second half. The third units will handle kickoffs, kickoff returns and punt coverage.

Admission will be $3.00 for adults and $1.00 for high school age and under. A&M students will be admitted on their ID cards and A&M faculty and staff will be admitted on the covers of last year's season ticket books.

The probable depth of the first two units:

FIRST OFFENSE: TE—Richard Osborne, LT—Glenn Bujnoch, LG—Bruce Welch, C—Ricky Seeker, RG—Billy Lemons, RT—Dennis Smelser, SE—Carl Roaches, QB—David Walker, LH—Bubba Bean, FB—Bucky Sams, RH—Skip Walker.

SECOND DEFENSE: LE—Tank Marshall, LT—Edgar Fields, RT—Jimmy Dean, RE—Blake Schwarz, LLB—Carl Warnke, MLB—John McCrumbley, RLB—Dan Allen, LC—William Thompson, RC—Charlie Arndt, LS—Larry Wright, RS—Reggie Williams.

Likely to miss all the action because of injuries are centers Henry Tracy and Rocco Wiest, running backs Jim Hartman, Ronnie Ragone and Steve Almond, LB Lester Hayes and defensive tackle Greg Vornkahl. Also, letterman safety Al Thurmond is playing outfield for the baseball team.

Progress this spring has been good and the Aggies should be a vastly improved football team next fall. Forty-five of 51 lettermen return from last year's squad, including 21 of 22 starters.

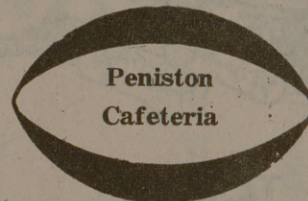

THIRD BASE THEATRICALS were seen in last week's series with Rice at Kyle Field as a scuffle erupted between A&M's Fred Russ and Mike Macha of Rice. After colliding on a throw to third, (top) blows were exchanged (second) and Aggie coach Tom Chandler and Craig Hodges (third) hurry to break up the fight. Chandler raises a hand (bottom), signaling the Rice bench that all is under control. (Photos by Steve Krauss)

America on a shoestring

(Show this ad to your folks.)

Here are a couple of great ways to spend part of your summer. (maybe all of your summer,) without worrying about gas. A Greyhound Ameripass, which gives you unlimited travel throughout America ($165 for 1 month and $220 for 2 months), and this invaluable guide to sleeping accommodations along the way. It covers Y's, college dorms, hostels, no-frill motels, even crash pads.

You can plan your own trip. Get on and off the bus anywhere and anytime you wish. Sleep cheap. Stay as long as you like. Then hop aboard another bus.

If you haven't been on one of our buses lately, you're in for a few pleasant surprises. There's new legroom. Air cushioned ride. Rest rooms on board. Real comfort. So you may decide to spend a few nights with us on the bus along the way.

Another nice thing: you can bring your bike along too. We'll carry it in our baggage compartment at no extra cost. You can do some extra exploring on your own wheels.

So if your folks voted thumbs down on your travel plans this summer, here's a sensible way to reopen the discussion.

Go Greyhound. And leave the driving to us.
