The moments are deep and showing at the Cinema I. absorbing in the animated science fiction fantasy adventure, "Fantastic Planet."

Basically the story of a race of giant humanoids who keep homo sapiens like us for pets, and one of our kind who escapes to join the small bands of wild humans, the film is seasoned with unexpected bizarre things that suddenly happen in the midst of

Each portion of the story is unfolded in an episode which ends right before another wierd occurrence opens a new sequence of events. A nicely structured movie that doesn't get off into the possible sidetracks of fantasy experience, but sticks to the struggle of the "Oms" for recognition as sentient creatures with dignity and all that.

Of course the situations portrayed are obviously impossible, as is the basic arrangement of characters, but the reactions of the "Oms" is a naturally human as one could expect from such a predicament, were one to be in such. The film does an adequate job of the stuff science fiction is best suited for: presenting a worthwhile concept in an outrageous form so you may grasp it all in a very fundamental fashion.

This film makes you sympathize with your everyday cats and dogs, and wonder what it would be like for them if they were smart enough to exhibit some social ambition. On top of all

In time to fill those last few free hours before final exams take over your mind, "Play It Again, Sam," opens Monday

A series of fantasy episodes illustrate how a person learns to draw characteristics from an imaginary character in order to be personally successful. Allan Call 846-0565. Felix (Carl Childress) assumes attitudes of Humphrey Bogart (Harry Gooding) in his relations with women.

Woody Allen wrote this play about an absurd little man, confused and ridiculous, who can't seem to get women to fall in love with him, or even pretend to.

Allen's concepts of humor are easily communicated words about .. salivary glands shifted into third. She wore a short skirt and a tight sweater and her figure described a set of parabolas that could cause cardiac arrest in a yak."

Tom Bond and Karen Miller play Dick and Linda, Felix's best friends. Felix gets involved with Linda while she accompanies him on expeditions to meet girls. Meanwhile Bogart and Felix's exwife (Martha McKemie) appear as apparitions to counsel him one way or the other, like devils and angels at either ear.

The curtain rises on this Aggie Players production at 8 p.m. Monday through Saturday in the that there are some fine chuckles Rudder Center Theater for $1.

17,000 union people endorse Briscoe

BEAUMONT (AP)—Gov. Dolph livered" an endorsement. Briscoe got a written endorsement Thursday from 17,000 union members of the building trades in 22 southeast Texas counties.

"This will help me carry Jefferson County this time," the elated governor said after a brief meeting with union leaders in Beaumont.

John Green, Jefferson County coordinator said many of the union men had supported Briscoe in 1972 when he lost Jefferson County to Frances Farenthold, but this was the first time they have ever "signed, sealed and de-
