

A week at the Grove

Double feature caps big week

All movies begin at 8:30 in the Grove with Rooms 225-226 in the MSC as backups in case of rain. Students with activity cards will be admitted free. 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

June 5, TRINITY IS STILL MY NAME (Terrence Hill, Bud Spencer, Harry Carey, Jr., Jessica Dublin)

Two ne'er-do-well cowboys (Hill & Spencer) promise their dying father that they will become successful outlaws with a huge price on their heads. But no matter how hard they try, they come out of every adventure on the side of the law.

June 6, BARBARELLA (Jane Fonda, John Phillip Law, David Hemmings, Milo O'Shea, Ugo Tognazzi)

The fantasy-satire sci-fi flick, directed by Roger Vadim, opens in the year 40,000 with a girl astronaut, Fonda, assigned to locate a scientist who has disappeared from earth.

June 7, COOL HAND LUKE (Paul Newman, George Kennedy, Jo Van Fleet)

"What we've got here is a failure to communicate." When the establishment tries to put the clamps on a fiercely independent spirit, the result is explosive. June 8, CACTUS FLOWER (Walter Matthau, Ingrid Bergman, Goldie Hawn)

Dr. Julian Winston (Matthau), a dentist and his nurse-assistant Stephanie (Ingrid Bergman), are the leading characters in this funny story. Unnoticed by Julian, whose amorous attention is lavished on a sexy young Greenwich Villager (Hawn), Stephanie leads a monotonous life. When Julian leads his blonde girlfriend to believe he is married, the dizzy beauty attempts suicide. With his love-life in a bad way, Julian calls on his reliable assistant to help him out by pretending to be his wife.

June 9, THE PRODUCERS (Zero Mostel, Gene Wilder, Lee Meredith, Dick Shaw)

Mel Brook's, "The Producers," starring the great comedian Zero Mostel, (A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum) as the "Producer" won an Academy Award for Best Original Screenplay and was called the Best Cinema Comedy in years by Time Magazine.

When his accountant shows him how to make money producing a flop on Broadway ("Springtime for Hitler"), the zanie comedian over-sells shares to an unusual bunch of "Angels."

June 10, THE GRADUATE (Anne Bancroft, Dustin Hoffman, Katherine Ross)

"The Graduate" depicts the legendary adventures of a young man in contemporary America, in which the direction of Mike Nichols (Academy Award-Best Director), employs a fascinating mod style that gives the film a distinctive style, ranging from social satire on our materialistic society, to outrageous farce, poignant character study and melodrama.

June 11, THE MAKING OF SILENT RUNNING & DUCK SOUP

The Grove will present a double feature beginning at 8:30 p.m. The first feature is "The Making of Silent Running," a behind the scenes look at the making of the contemporary science-fiction movie shown at this year's Aggie Con.

Part two of the double feature is the Marx Brothers in "Duck Soup" directed by Leo McCarey, a genius of comedy. As Prime Minister Firefly of Freedonia, Groucho soon reduces queen Margaret Dumont's kingdom to shambles. Harpo & Chico appear as peanut vendors who become secret agents.

THE GOVERNOR'S MOTORCYCLE Safety Program came to the Bryan-College Station area last Sunday as the Bryan Police Dept. sponsored a motorcycle rodeo. Here, two participants ride the course set up to test their agility and reflexes which are tried in everyday riding needs. (Photos by David Kimmel)
