*Envoy says Nixon to require phlebitis
hospitalization soon*

LONDON (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Walter Annenberg said here today that former President Richard M. Nixon has indicated in a telephone conversation that he expects to be hospitalized soon for his phlebitis.

The American envoy in London said a mutual friend had expressed the fear that a second clot above Nixon's left knee could move in the direction of the groin.

"Mr. Nixon made no mention of how he felt but his voice was firm and seemed completely normal to me," Annenberg said in an interview with The Associated Press in which he discussed his conversation with the former president.

Annenberg said Nixon telephoned him from San Clemente on Tuesday night to discuss—"full of enthusiasm"—Annenberg's hopes and plans for setting up a school of international communications to broaden international understanding.

Annenberg quoted Nixon as saying that he was thinking about the project and had "several thoughts" about it.

The envoy said at the same time Nixon "indicated that he would have to undergo hospitalization soon."

Annenberg said that he had visited President Ford on Sept. 6 and asked him to relieve him as ambassador to Britain no later than Oct. 31.

"Speculation that I was a catalyst in President Ford's decision to pardon President Nixon is totally untrue and ridiculous," Annenberg said. "I would never presume to discuss a matter of that character that lies wholly in the province of the President himself."

Besides talking to Nixon several times on the telephone recently, Annenberg had dinner with him on Aug. 23 at San Clemente and invited the former president to his California estate Sept. 8-12.

The ambassador said that, in his contacts with Nixon, he had purposely avoided discussing the former president's health.

"I am sympathetic to Mr. Nixon, he gave me the greatest honor of my life. I am concerned about his health, but I don't have to spell that out to him."

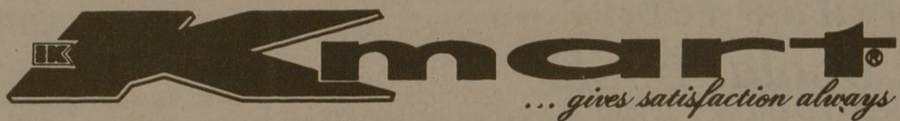

Annenberg said that when the Nixons used the Annenberg estate he stayed away as a matter of policy so they could relax better.

"They went there because I persuaded them that the weather was better than at San Clemente. Mr. Nixon has a great reverence for the landscape which is a sanctuary from the outside world."

"I understand that they did a good deal of resting. His leg was probably bothering him. Most of their meals were served by train to the guest facilities. I can't say if Mr. Nixon played golf. Mrs. Nixon enjoys fishing for bass and other fish in my ponds."

Service fees pay for SG budget

Student Service fees will finance most of Student Government's 1974-1975 budget of $18,060.

When last year's budget failed to cover summer expenses, the cash fund was drawn on. A requested $950 from the Strake fund was approved and put into fiscal funds.

At the end of the year, unused funds remain in the same budget category.

Profits from this year's refrigerator funds are expected to be $2,250.

At last week's Senate meeting a resolution by Vice-President of Finance Curt Marsh to donate $200 from refrigerator profits to the Campus Chest passed unanimously.

Currently, $1,028 is on loan to students from the Campus Chest.

Major budget items include: Academic Affairs (Published Evaluations, TAMSS), $1,500; Copy Center (Minutes, announcements, surveys, resolutions), $1,800; Elections (DPC time, ballots, referendums), $800; External Affairs (Questionnaires, Apartment Guide, City relations), $500; Public Relations (The Senator, brochures, signs, posters), $850; Secretary (half time during summer, full time during school year), $4,200; Telephone, $1,200; Travel (NSL, TSA conferences), $1,200; and Voter Registration, $200.

Joham fills vacancy

Dr. Howard E. Joham, A&M professor, has been named acting head of the department of Plant Sciences.

Joham fills the vacancy created when Dr. D. W. Rosberg stepped down Aug. 31.

Joham has been a full professor of plant physiology since 1959, and has been employed by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station since 1947.

He is president of the local chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, and is past president of the Southern Section of the American Society of Plant Physiologists and Sigma Xi.

Joham holds a B. A. from Santa Barbara College, a M. S. from A&M and a Ph.D. from Iowa State University. Before coming to A&M, he worked with the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) as a junior plant physiologist. Joham has authored and co-authored 70 publications and scientific articles.
