

SG discusses possibility of serving Sunday night meals

The possibility of serving a Sunday evening meal on campus was discussed at the SG executive committee meeting Sunday.

The evening meal could be substituted for weekly steak dinners or Saturday morning breakfast. Possibilities will be discussed with the Menu Board. Other topics discussed were:

- It is alleged that last year eight Aggies cut the Rice Victory Tree after The Rice Band mocked A&M traditions at the halftime show during the A&M-Rice game. The Aggieland said the Aggies cut the tree, although it was not admitted last year.

A letter from President Williams suggested that reconciliation be aimed for with Rice. Either Student Government or a service organization will handle the situation.

- The current policy of attendance not being mandatory was discussed. The blue book requires a syllabus with dates of major quizzes and assignments. Attendance is required only for quizzes and assignments.

- Thirty thousand dollars is needed for the student radio station. The station does not have the proper transmitter, Steve Eberhard, SG President, said. The transmitter is responsible for the estimate shooting over previous estimates. Student Government "has not yet decided" how to raise the $30,000. The license for the station should be approved in six to twelve weeks.

- To determine if discrimination exists within the TAMU faculty, the minority affairs committee sent a letter to department heads for a list of Black and Mexican-American instructors. The minority affairs committee is a sub-committee of academic affairs.

The Minority Affairs Committee is the only policy changing group for Blacks, the executive committee said, since the MSC Black Awareness Committee only handles programming.

A Minority Recruiting Conference is tentatively scheduled for February.

- One-half of the 54 newly arrived refrigerators have been rented. The rental office will be open Tuesday and Wednesday 3-5 p.m.

- Unfinished business included Bylaws Revision Resolution, Ticket Allocation Resolution and Parking

Fines Resolution. Section 18 of the Bylaws Revision Resolution was tabled at last Wednesday's Student Senate meeting. The SG Rules and Regulations Committee plans to work out an amended form of the section.

Election Board bylaws revisions and a ticket allocation resolution concerning the seniority system were discussed as new business.

- There are several meetings for the week of September 30-October 5. Tuesday, the executive Committee Luncheon is at 4:30 p.m. Dr. Kroiter's lecture is at 8 p.m.

Interviews for the Senate and Judicial Board positions are at 7 p.m. Wednesday. The Rules and Regulations Committee meets at 7:30 p.m.

Kidnaped diplomat gets message out

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—A note in a bottle and an eyewitness report indicated kidnaped U.S. diplomat Barbara Hutchison was holding up well Monday, but efforts to free her and other hostages held by six leftist guerrillas in the Venezuelan Consulate proceeded slowly.

Earlier reports said six hostages were being held, but the Roman Catholic bishop of Santo Domingo said Monday night there were seven.

Msgr. Hugo Eduardo Polanco Brito said he found out about the seventh hostage, a young man in his early 20s described as a messenger, when he delivered food and medicine to the consulate Monday afternoon. He said the young man had been in the building since the siege began.

President Joaquin Balaguer met the U.S. ambassador, Venezuelan charge d'affaires and Spanish ambassador to discuss ways of obtaining the release of the hostages. No details were given of the hour-long meeting.

Meanwhile the U.S. State Department said the kidnapers' demands "seem to have boiled down to safe conduct for the people who have taken Barbara and their associates."

State Department spokesman John King noted the terrorists had apparently not repeated their early demand for a $1 million ransom.

Miss Hutchison and several others inside the consulate could be seen from time to time peeking through long white drapes covering a picture window on the second floor. But Dominican police and troops had the area completely cordoned off from newsmen and passersby, and no one could get within 75 yards of the building.

"It is obvious that she is still in good spirits and as courageous as she always has been," U.S. Ambassador Robert Hurwitch said of the 47-year-old Miss Hutchison, director of the U.S. Information Service on this island nation. He gave the assessment after reading the note in the bottle, but did not divulge its contents.

Fire burns house; hurts fire-fighter

A one-alarm fire damaged a one-story frame house in Bryan Friday night and injured a Bryan fireman.

The Bryan Central Fire Department answered the call shortly before 9 p.m. at 404 Randolph. Firemen arrived to find smoke and flames pouring out of the house but brought the blaze under control within five minutes.

According to fire officials, the blaze started in the living room and spread to the dining area.

The house, owned by Elizabeth Gordon, who lived next door, was rented to Charles Hood.

One fireman was injured. David Attaway suffered a broken foot when he fell through the floor and hit the ground two feet below. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, was treated and released.

Fire Marshal Raymond Janac said an investigation of the cause of the blaze is being conducted.
