Ohio State survives upsets, Notre Dame drops to seven

(AP)—Ohio State survived another wave of upsets last weekend and held on to first place in The Associated Press college football rankings.

The Buckeyes, 42-point favorites, had a tougher time than expected but defeated Southern Methodist 28-9 and received 26 first-place votes and 1,044 of a possible 1,140 points Monday from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Notre Dame, ranked second a week ago, had its hopes for a second consecutive national championship jolted in a 31-20 loss to Purdue. The Fighting Irish dropped to seventh place while Oklahoma, the pre-season and first-week leader, massacred Utah State 72-3 and moved up from third to second with 25 first-place votes and 1,002 points.

Alabama and Michigan also climbed one position each to third and fourth, respectively. Alabama, a 23-10 winner over Vanderbilt, received four first-place votes and 898 points while Michigan earned five No. 1 votes but only 878 points following a 52-0 clobbering of Navy.

Texas A&M went from ninth to fifth by trouncing Washington 28-15. One ballot listed the Aggies in a five-way tie for first place with Ohio State, Oklahoma, Alabama and Michigan.

A second straight shuffling of the rankings found Nebraska up from 10th to sixth by defeating Northwestern 49-7, Notre Dame down to No. 7, North Carolina State up from 13th to eighth with a 28-22 triumph over Syracuse, Southern California up from 18th to ninth by defeating Pitt 16-7 and Texas Tech up from an also-ran all the way to 10th by upsetting Texas 26-3.

Auburn, ranked 11th, made the Top Twenty for the first time this season after a 21-0 whipping of Tennessee, which had been No. 14 but dropped out of the rankings.

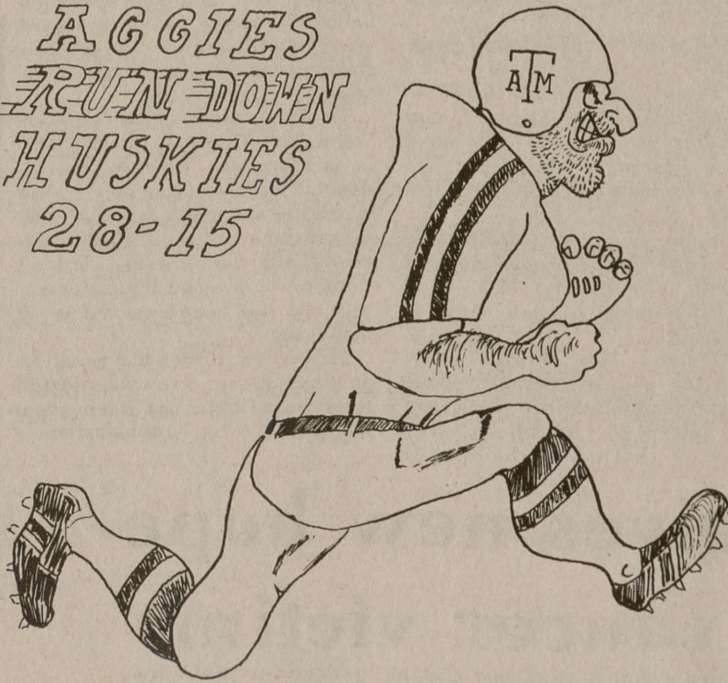

The rest of the Second Ten consists of Arizona, Florida, Illinois, Penn State, Miami of Florida, Pitt, Arizona State, Texas and Arkansas.

Florida made it by beating Mississippi State 29-13, while Arkansas got back in with a 60-0 rout of Tulsa. Wisconsin lost to Colorado 24-21 and dropped out. So did Oklahoma State, a 31-14 victim at the hands of Baylor. Louisiana State, which lost to Texas A&M a week ago, was among the missing after being held to a 10-10 standoff by Rice.

NCAA hits SMU; Terrell ineligible

(AP) — Ira Terrell, Southern Methodist's 6-foot-5 All-Southwest Conference basketball center, says he has no immediate comment when notified his eligibility will be revoked pending an appeal to the NCAA by the school on his behalf.

"I might have something to say later but I don't right now," Terrell said Monday.

SMU is planning an appeal to the NCAA's eligibility committee. The NCAA has already ruled that SMU is ineligible to play in the national collegiate basketball championships or any other post-season tournament.

The NCAA said last August that "On two occasions during the 1972-73 academic year, a student-athlete was given cash by an assistant coach to be used for personal expenses."
