

Aggies still undefeated, try Texas

Soccer team blasts Baylor, 5-2; B-team wins 2-

By ROBERT CESSNA
The Texas A&M first and second soccer teams completed a sweep of Baylor on Saturday. The score of the first team game was 5-2 and the second game was 2-1.

In the game of first stringers the Aggies completely dominated the Bears. Ricardo Schwartz put the head on a long Jim Davis cross pass from right wing for the first score, 10 minutes into the first half.

Mehrdad Farrokhnia took the ball on a break at 13 minutes and scored. He pushed the ball into the left side of the net going one on one with the Baylor goaltender.

In the second half with 10 minutes gone Davis moved in from right wing, faked a pass and pisted another hard shot into the near corner.

The Baylor center-forward scored twice at 25 minutes and 43 minutes on identical shots. He took passes at 10 yards and fired into the left corner. A&M goalie Dan Byerly didn't have a chance to stop either shot. A&M finished Ag scoring at the 42 minute mark when Schwartz took a pass in a crowd and slammed it into the corner.

In the second team game Baylor scored early in the first half. Goalie Tony Gallucci deflected the shot but it dropped into the net.

Gery DiMarco scored both goals for the Aggies to lead the offense. His first goal was a shot in heavy traffic. He ended the scoring with 10 minutes to go when he kicked from the edge of the goal box for the clincher.

A persistent Aggie defense kept the ball out of the A&M half in both games.

The offense on the other hand kept the pressure on the Baylor goalie by peppering him throughout the game.

The win leaves the Aggies with a 1-0-2 record this season. B-team played its first game Saturday and stands 1-0.

Both teams will be traveling weekend to Austin where they play conference co-leader Texas

Ags meet Sips in water polo tonight

For the first time since 1971, the Texas A&M Water Polo team plays the University of Texas in a 7 p.m. match tonight.

The Aggies won the previous meeting and have not played one another since.

A&M comes off a successful road trip to California where they posted a 5-2 record. The team won the first five games and dropped the last two to Fresno State and the United States Air Force Academy.

"Our players really did well," coach Dennis Fosdick said. "The people out there thought we would be lucky to win two games. We were in a higher division than in the past and finished second."

Last year the Aggies, who are now 6-2 overall, finished third in the tournament. Fosdick said the competition was stiffer this year. "We outswam all opponents, but their size hurt us in two losses. They outmuscled us in close to the goal."

Fosdick picked out Don Reeser and Jim Yates for their offensive play. Reeser scored 15 goals while Yates contributed 12 in the tourney. Defensively, Paul McKinzie stopped 68 of 94 shots for a 72 percent save average.

"We need to concentrate on our passing and shooting still. It's coming — but still needs more work. We need good competition at home so we can work on the fine points," said Fosdick.

The Texas game will be the first home appearance for the water polo team. There is no admission charge to tonight's match at P. L. Downs Natatorium.

Golf team completes qualifying tournament

The Texas A&M golf team has completed its fall qualifying tournament, according to new coach Bob Ellis. The top 15 players will now compete for the five spots in two upcoming tournaments.

"We're ready to start organized practice sessions now," Ellis said. "I'll work with the players using some film equipment, and we'll have two or three qualifying rounds each week to determine the top five players. We're also going to start the players on an aerobics exercise program and also have them working on weights."

The Aggies will play in the Harvey Penick Invitational in Austin Nov. 8-10 and the Pan Am Invitational in Brownsville Nov. 21-23.

Women softballers secure berth in state tournament

By MARY RUSSO
Staff Sports Writer

After living the same old Aggie fable for four weekends, the women softballers pulled it together as a team taking second in zone and securing a berth at state, in tournament play this weekend.

The first game demonstrated that the women could really play it hard as they took Mary Hardin-Baylor, 11-1.

It was Robin Oakley winding up for the fast pitch and delivering the tosses with accuracy. Robin is a second year member of the team and was probably the team's greatest talent last year.

Taking those pitches in was Ruth Whitely, catcher. Whitely plays hard ball, taking knuckle rakes while retrieving the ball from the backstop to cracking her head on a closed-fisted catch-tag on a into second.

On the bases Terri Sand Sarah Savage and Mary Mack Linda Andrews at short stop shots across the infield with that startled the armadillos shook up their game strategy playing it slow and easy.

The outfield of strong arm girls, LaRita Fickey, Kim Bell and Diane Qitta saved the day the women more than once on dives for knee-high linedrives hanging pups.

The game that really got something together was the Baylor game.

Notorious for using poor pires, the Baylor team fought way to make a single run, which defensive Ags prevented. The score illustrates what happens a team is fired-up.

Making the run in the first the Ags held the Bears to a score with great team-work and most flawless coverage. But the bases are loaded and a line is knocked into mid-left field and Bears make it home for a run obvious that something is working.

The heartbreaker of the tournament was the A&M vs. Sam Houston game.

The girls were working together but made a few mistakes and by time they were drained from hours of play.

The speed and accuracy some went away and the final score for hard lost game was SHSU 3, A&M 1. Not a disasterous loss, but that blocked the title of first in from the tongues of the Aggies.

The girls travel to state, Oct. 19. If they show half the physical and even spiritual togetherness that they showed during the Bear stand-off, then state of happily go to Kay Don's diamond darlings.
