

Adjustments board delays request action on first case

By GERALD OLIVIER
Staff Writer
No action was taken by College Station's Board of Adjustments on its first case Tuesday night. The new board, meeting for the first time, delayed action on a request by B. B. Scasta for a variance allowing him to construct a building closer than the minimum seven feet from the property line. Fredda Austin, chairman of the board, said Scasta was not present to answer questions and the action would be taken at the next meeting. The board has the power to grant variances of the city's zoning ordinance, but does not have the power to change the zoning of a plot. Requests for variances or complaints concerning the actions of a building official go first to the city planner and are then referred to the board for final action. Once the board has ruled on a case the only appeal is through the court system.

The board spent most of the meeting developing procedures to follow at future meetings.

The group decided that a form for the requesting of zoning variances needs to be developed.

The board set no regular meeting date, but decided to meet as needed. Austin said the next meeting will be within three weeks.

In other action, the board appointed Kathy Leabo to serve as its representative on a committee being formed by the city to study possible revisions of the zoning ordinances.

Flagpoles, center to be recognized

TAMU's new student health center will be formally dedicated Saturday in honor of the late Dr. A. P. Beutel and recognition made of the new Kyle Field flagpoles erected in memory of Lt. William B. Blocker, a former student who died in World War II.

Ceremonies officially naming the A. P. Beutel Health Center will be at 9 a.m. in front of the new building.

Special note will be made of the new dual flagpoles at the south end of Kyle Field prior to the start of the football game with TCU. The 100-foot poles were given to the university by John R. Blocker of Houston, a 1945 graduate, in memory of his brother, also of the Class of '45.
