MSC council voices discontent with Batt

By JIM CRAWLEY
A resolution of discontent with The Battalion's coverage of MSC events was passed in a memorandum to the Battalion Editorial Staff on a voice vote, by the MSC Council.

Steve Eberhard, SG president, argued that SG should also have the same rating as the MSC committees. The proposal, by Eberhard, was taken under consideration and resolution was approved.

The Battalion resolution produced a flurry of discussion between council member Bob Bell and Bill Davis, council president. Davis, who introduced the motion, cited that The Battalion, as a student paper, should place more emphasis on MSC events.

"The MSC committees have had problems recently in getting information out of The Battalion. All MSC programs merit better attention in the Batt than at present," said Davis.

"We tried to make nothing in it (the memorandum) to be vindictive to The Battalion," said Davis.

"One of journalism's problems is what to print and what not to print...each level has to decide. In fact, I wonder if in a community of students, the Batt isn't the only paper to be received by students. It would be a disservice to not include all the news, both local and national," said Bell.

"Let's be vindictive, if we don't think clearly about this problem," Bell said.

In other business, the council voted in favor of a recommendation allowing the council and the MSC Directorate to have priority in facility scheduling.

The University Center priority resolution asks the U. C. Scheduling Manager to give the MSC committees a higher priority in reserving space. This would give the directorate an edge over other student organizations.

The council also approved the resignation of the Host & Fashion Committee chairman, Kathy Armstrong.

Troupe performs Woody Allen play

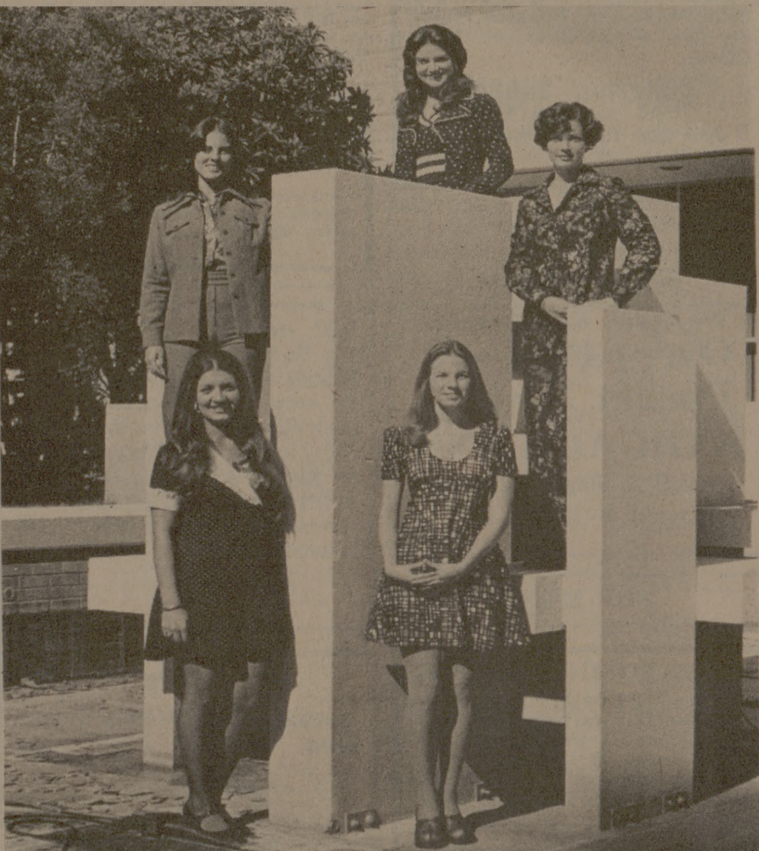

A Woody Allen play, "Don't Drink the Water," will be the first presentation of StageCenter Thursday through Saturday and Oct. 22-26.

The eight performances will each begin at 8 p.m. at the StageCenter Theatre on College Avenue.

Directed by Mary Castle and Wendell Landmann, the cast consists of 12 local performers. Will Worley takes the lead role as Father Drobney, a priest living in the U. S. embassy in a small communist community. He is magician and narrator.

Jerry Holbert plays a dual role as ambassador and sultan. David Barron is Kilroy.

Tickets will be sold at the door, $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for students and $1 for children-under-12. Season tickets will also be available.
