New RV's join ranks

The Ross Volunteers will induct 72 new members Thursday at a banquet.

Texas Rep. Bill Prenal of Bryan will speak at the 7:30 p.m. banquet at the Aggeland Inn. Charles L. Harvey, RV's commander from Houston will preside.

The 104-member precision marching unit includes 72 junior members of the Corps of Cadets. Senior members make new member selection on the basis of academic standing, military achievement, character and extracurricular activities.

Trapeze swings with music

The "Hues Corporation" and "Trapeze" will appear in a Town Hall Special Attraction Friday at 8 p.m. in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

"Freedom for the Stallion," "Miracle Maker" and "Rock the Boat" have been successive hit singles of the Hues Corporation. Trapeze takes the high wire with an album including "Bark Street Love," "Take It On Down the Road" and "Midnight Flyer," among others.

Town Hall Chairman Doug Thorpe reminded that Town Hall Specials are non-series events, requiring separate tickets for admission. They are on sale at the Rudder Center box office, on the first floor of the University Center Tower.

Consumers can save resources

Dr. Albert J. Fritsch will speak Thursday in Great Issues' "Quality of Life" series.

"The Contrasmers: A Citizen's Guide to Resource Conservation" titles Dr. Fritsch's presentation.

The public-free program will start at 8 p.m. in Room 601 of the Rudder Tower.

Dr. Fritsch co-directs the Center for Science in the Public Interest.

Fritsch also serves as an advisor to the National Council for the Public Assessment of Technology.

Dr. Fritsch was formerly a science consultant for Ralph Nader's Center for the Study of Responsive Law. He has written two books on the impact of science and public interest. He spoke at the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment.

A place happy to eat.

The Tokyo Steak House is a place happy to eat. The menu is traditional, the atmosphere authentic, the service polite, the food terrific.

In the Teppan Yaki (iron grill) room, your choice of steak, shrimp, or chicken (plus bean sprouts, onions, zucchini and mushrooms) are cooked right on your table. Chef Toshio is a master of the Japanese cooking ceremony which makes cooking an adventure and eating a delight.

There are chopsticks for purists, forks for those with hardy appetites and fortune cookies for everyone. Come as you are—but come hungry and in the mood to have a relaxing, happy dinner.
