

Oakland beats Dodgers 5-2, go for championship today

(AP) — Pinch-hitter Jim Holt stroked a two-run single, highlighting a four-run Oakland rally that carried the A's to a 5-2 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers in Wednesday night's fourth game of the World Series.

The triumph gave the A's a 3-1 edge in the best-of-seven Series. The American League champions will try to nail down their third straight world title in Game 5, which starts at 8:30 p.m., EDT, Thursday.

The A's won with a typical Oakland rally—four runs on just two hits in the sixth inning. For a change, they displayed some long-ball punch but it came from a most unlikely source — winning pitcher Ken Holtzman.

Stripped of his bat during the regular season by the American League's designated-hitter rule, Holtzman continued to make up for it by swinging a big World Series stick. He produced the game's first score with a long home run in the third.

But the Dodgers wiped out that lead in the fourth inning on Bill Russell's triple that sailed between Bill North and Reggie Jackson and rolled to the center-field fence.

So the A's were on the short end of a 2-1 score when they came to bat against Andy Messersmith in the sixth.

North, leading off, worked a walk on a 3-2 pitch that just missed the corner.

As the speedy Oakland runner took a lead off first, Messersmith threw over, trying to keep him close. He threw once, twice, three times. But then he tried North once too often and the ball bounced past first baseman Steve Garvey for an error, moving North to second.

The opportunistic A's wasted no time capitalizing on it.

Sal Bando snapped an 0-for-11 Series' slump with a single and North scored easily, tying the score at 2-2.

Next, Jackson walked on four pitches and the A's were off to a big inning.

Joe Rudi sacrificed the runners up with a bunt and that brought Claudell Washington to the plate.

Manager Walter Alston ordered Washington walked, loading the bases, and bringing up Fosse.

But Fosse got no further than the on deck circle.

He was called back and Holt, a midseason pickup from the Minnesota Twins, was sent up to pinch hit.

Holt had gone hitless in 25 consecutive pinch-hitting swings during the regular season, but things turned out much better for him this time.

He ripped a single to right. Bando, of course, scored easily. Right behind him came Jackson.

Right fielder Joe Ferguson uncorked a fine throw to the plate that seemed to have Jackson beat. But the A's slugger slid around catcher Steve Yeager's tag and the A's led 4-2.

A moment later, Oakland had another run when Dick Green forced the runner at second base, scoring Claudell Washington from third base.

The four-run inning was the biggest by either team so far in this Series, plagued by puny batting attacks by both teams. The first three games each wound up with the score 3-2.

Good seats available for TCU game

By MIKE BRUTON

COMMENT:

There are still plenty of good seats left for the A&M-TCU football game Saturday in Kyle Field.

There have been rumors of the game being sold out, but the Athletic Business Office predicted today that about 38-40,000 fans will attend.

There were better than 50,000 people at the Texas Tech game this past weekend, and all conference games are important ones.

For years area football fans have wanted a good Aggie football team. Texas A&M is now amongst the top teams in the nation. Where are all those loyal fans?
